PRICE FIVE CENTS

JAIL 2 YOUTHS FOR BURGLARY OF STORE HERE

Two young men were sentenced to prison and another fined and placed on probation by the Adams County court Saturday for their part in local burglaries.

Robert E. Thomas, 18, 224 E. Middle St., was sentenced to from six to 23 months in the county jail, ordered to make $105 restitution and pay the costs on a charge of burglary of Sanders' Store, Gettysburg R. 6. He was also sentenced to from six to 23 months, with the sentence to run concurrently with the first sentence, and ordered to make restitution of $48 and pay the costs on a second charge of breaking into and burglarizing Sanders' Store. He was given the same prison sentence, to run concurrently with the others, on a charge of burglary and larceny of the library and high school and ordered to make $2 restitution to the Adams County Library where he took some stamps. On a charge of burglary of the Dairy Queen, where he was caught by the proprietor shortly after entering the structure along the Lincoln Highway east of here, he was given a suspended sentence on payment of costs.

Roy D. Swope, 19, R. 4, appearing for sentence on a charge of burglary and larceny based on the same entry of the Sanders Store as the first charge against Thomas, was sentenced to from three to 12 months in the Adams County Jail and ordered to make $105 restitution and pay the costs. Swope was given a suspended sentence on payment of costs on a charge of furnishing intoxicants to minors.

KNOX IS FINED

Thomas L. Knox, 18, 46 Steinwehr Ave., charged with burglary and larceny with Thomas and Swope on the entry of the Sanders Store in which $105 was taken, was given a suspended sentence after testimony to the court showed he had not actually entered the store but had provided (Continued On Page 2)

LARGE CROWD AT DEDICATION OF HIGH SCHOOL

More than 700 persons attended the dedication services and open house of the new Littlestown Junior-Senior High School Sunday afternoon at the school. Rev. Alton M. Motter, a graduate of the class of 1926, was the principal speaker.

After the dedicatory services, guests and visitors toured the new facilities, and building, which will be put to use Tuesday when the school system begins its fall term. Rev. Motter, in his address, recalled his days in the old school building and then noted the trend of education since that time. He said, "Littlestown is a symbol of that trend in education today." He said that it offers "the best possible education at the lowest possible tax cost."

REV. MOTTER'S REMARKS

Rev. Motter said that education today not only prepares the student for making a living, but "it helps each one make a life. Life is much tougher than just making a living," he told the audience. "If we want to establish a world community in which everyone can live peacefully, we must train our students so that they can provide the leadership to unite all the human race into one family."

In conclusion, Motter said, "We can only rise as high or be as great as the people that we are." Supervising Principal Paul E. King presided. Prior to the program, Mrs. Jocelyn S. Zimmerman gave an organ recital on the new electronic organ in the auditorium.

MAKES PRESENTATION

Wilbur A. Bankert, president of the Joint School Authority, presented the building to High School Principal Frank E. Basehoar who accepted for the administration. Superintendent of the Pennsylvania Department of Public Instruction Dr. Herbert E. Bryan dedicated the building and facilities, noting that it is a big responsibility for persons to assume when they try to take a student and teach him the trades of the world. He emphasized that Littlestown had leaders who were capable of this.

YWCA To Reopen Tuesday Morning

The YWCA of Gettysburg, closed during the month of August while staff members were vacationing, will open at 8 Center Square for its 35th year on Tuesday at 9 a.m.

The roster of staff members for the coming year remains unchanged. Mrs. Ralph D. Heim continues as executive director. Miss Carolyn Mills of Haddonfield, N. J., a college senior, continues as Y-Teen coordinator; Mrs. H. Edgar Riegle as secretary, and Mrs. Ruth Johns as housekeeper. All serve on a part-time basis.

Mrs. W. Stewart Paul will preside at the September 11 meeting of the board of directors.

The Y-Wire listing fall activities will be mailed to members this week. The first event to appear on the calendar will be the Annie Danner Club's casserole dinner on Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. The 35th anniversary will be observed in October with details to be announced later.

NEW GARBAGE CHANGES MAY STIR PROTEST

Complaints are expected to be registered with borough council at its meeting Tuesday evening in the engine house with a number of citizens protesting recent changes in the garbage collection system.

Basis of the complaints is the advanced billing and the increased rates directives received from the Adams Sanitation Co. ordering garbage containers in some cases placed on front sidewalks or carried some distance from the premises.

Rates have been increased from $2 to $2.25 a month and payment is now on a "quarterly in advance system" instead of the weekly or monthly basis previously used. Under the amendment to the 1938 ordinance adopted by the Gettysburg Borough Council August 1, 1960, such payments are required only one month in advance. Borough Secretary Anna Drachsa said today she has no record showing council had repealed the August, 1960, ordinance.

Lightning Burns Barn, Ten Cattle

A two-story frame barn was destroyed, and 10 head of cattle perished in a Sunday afternoon blaze, five miles west of Dillsburg. Farm machinery was also destroyed.

Firemen said the blaze was caused by lightning which struck the building at 3 p.m.

The building, livestock and farm machinery were owned by Nevin Resh, of East Berlin R. 2.

Firemen from York Springs, Franklintown, Dillsburg, East Berlin were on the scene more than an hour before containing the flames, which for a time threatened to spread to nearby homes.

Snow Ruins Vacations In Rockies, Strands Tourists

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Snow and cold, snapping all kinds of records, ruined the Labor Day weekend in the Rockies for campers, fishermen, golfers, boaters and others who revel under sunny skies.

The storm, sloshing four inches of wet, fast-melting snow on Denver, stranded briefly thousands of travelers in mountain areas where the snowfall measured up to two feet. There were no reports of severe hardships.

Loveland Pass, the U.S. 6 route which crosses the Continental Divide at 11,992 feet west of Denver, was blocked for a short time. Trail Ridge Road, another divide crossing in northern Colorado, also was closed.

SLOWS TOURISTS

The early storm slowed hundreds of tourists hurrying home from late summer vacations. The same storm, sweeping across Montana late Friday, was blamed for the disappearance of a light plane carrying three men.

TWO MIGRANT WORKERS HURT IN AUTO CRASH

Two persons were injured when a car ran off the road near Wenksville Sunday evening at 5:10 o'clock.

State police said Joshua Carter, 26, Biglerville R. D. and Winter Haven, Fla., a migrant worker, was driving north on the Wenksville Rd. from Arendtsville when his car left the highway at a curve, climbed an embankment and came to a halt after hitting several trees. Damage to the car was estimated at $300.

Carter was charged before Justice of the Peace Clarence Fritz, McKnightstown, with reckless driving.

John Fountain, 16, Mt. Alto and Winter Haven, a passenger in the car, who was thrown from the vehicle in the crash, was treated at the Warner Hospital for lacerations and brush burns of the forehead.

Carter, who suffered a minor laceration of the left cheek, refused treatment at the hospital. The two men were brought to the hospital here in the Biglerville ambulance.

CROSS KEYS CRASH

Damage totaled $1,500 but no one was injured in an auto accident Saturday afternoon at 3:05 o'clock at Cross Keys. State police said Kenneth A. Klinedinst, 17, New Oxford R. 1, traveling east on the Lincoln Highway attempted a left turn into the Hanover-Carlisle Rd. in the path of a westbound car driven by D. Glenn Shupp, 30, Thomasville R. 1. Damage to Klinedinst's car was estimated at $300 and to Shupp's at $1,200.

State police over the weekend were notified of the larceny of two tires and wheels valued at $50 from the Spriggs Garage along the Emmitsburg Rd. south of here early Saturday morning. Police said the thieves jacked up the car, removed the wheels and tires, then lowered the rear of the car to the ground.

ARTIST WILL SPEAK BEFORE CRAFTS GUILD

The Adams County Arts and Crafts Guild today announced plans for its September 18 meeting and committees for the year, including those who are to work at the South Mountain Fair.

Brazil Compromise Ends Civil War Threat; Gives Real Power To Premier

By ROBERT BERRELLEZ

BRASILIA, Brazil (AP) — The threat of civil war in Brazil appeared ended today as the nation's three military chiefs dropped their opposition to leftist Joao Goulart and agreed to let him become a figurehead president.

The 42-year-old vice president, whose leftist leaning led the military to denounce him as a security risk, indicated he would go along with the constitutional amendment approved by Congress that sets up a parliamentary system and vests the real power in a premier.

Congress devised the compromise to appease War Minister Odilio Denys and his fellow service chiefs who opposed giving Goulart full presidential powers.

FLYING TO CAPITAL

Goulart is slated to leave his southern stronghold of Porto Alegre Tuesday and fly to Brasilia for the inauguration. Congress is leaving the time and date of the ceremony up to him. A terse announcement from the Presidential Palace saying the service chiefs had recommended that all commands respect the constitutional amendment appeared to ease the crisis.

Navy headquarters in Rio de Janeiro ordered federal forces in the southern coastal state of Santa Catarina to pull back to avoid a clash with pro-Goulart forces.

MRS. J. HOWE PASSES AWAY

Mrs. M. Blanche Howe, 73, 243 York St., died at the Warner Hospital shortly after 3 o'clock this morning after a lingering illness.

A daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob B. and Clara M. Pottorff Hollabaugh, she was born in Butler Twp. and the widow of James F. Howe.

The deceased was a member of St. James Lutheran Church, the Rebekah Lodge and the Legion Auxiliary.

Surviving is one brother, J. P. Hollabaugh, Biglerville. Funeral services from the Peters Funeral Home, Carlisle St., Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock with her pastor, Rev. Dr. Paul L. Reaser, officiating. Burial in the Evergreen Cemetery.

FRIENDS MAY VIEW THE BODY

From 9 to 10 o'clock the morning of the services. Relatives have asked that flowers be omitted and that any contributions be made to the cancer fund.

BAILED FOR HEARING

Clair M. Shultz, Gardner R. 1, was arrested by borough police on a drunken driving charge and posted $500 bond Sunday before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder for a hearing at 9 o'clock Tuesday evening.

COUPLE WEDS ON SUNDAY AT SHIPPENSBURG

Miss Joyce Arlene Burkholder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester D. Burkholder, Shippensburg, became the bride of Carroll Edwin Kann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Kann, R. 1, Sunday, at 4 p.m. in the Shippensburg United Church of Christ. Rev. Albert Robinson officiated at the double-ring ceremony. The altar was decorated with white gladioli, mums and pompons. The organist,

George W. Crum, 70, Gardner R. 2, proprietor of the C. and M. Machine Shop at Mt. Tabor, died Sunday morning at 6 o'clock at his home in Mt. Tabor after an illness of three years.

A son of the late Abel and Lydia (Hardy) Crum, he was born and always resided in Adams County. He operated a garage in Mt. Tabor for 21 years before converting it into a machine shop 21 years ago. During World War II, he was a subcontractor for the McGamm Manufacturing Company of York, his machine shop turned out large quantities of materials for the government. The machine shop continued in active operation until Mr. Crum's illness over the last three years during which time it was in part-time operation.

A member of the Eagles and Moose lodges in Gettysburg, he is survived by his wife, the former Tressa Cline, and three children, Mrs. Mae Slaybaugh, Gettysburg; Mrs. R. D. Fogarty, Atlanta, Ga., and Ray H. Crum, Mt. Tabor.

Also surviving are four sisters and a brother: Mrs. Emory Shetter, Carlisle; Mrs. A. G. Hertzog, Bendersville; Mrs. Mary Hoffman, Bendersville; Mrs. Adie Thomas, Aspers R. 1, and Henry W. Crum, Bendersville Jeweler.

Funeral services Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the Dugan Funeral Home, Bendersville, with the Rev. Edwin H. Cole officiating. Interment in Mt. Tabor Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home in Bendersville Tuesday evening after 7 o'clock.

The national's traffic deaths since the start of the long Labor Day weekend today appeared keeping pace with the grim pre-holiday estimate of 420.

More than 300 have lost their lives in traffic accidents since 6 p.m. Friday, with the heaviest travel of the three-day holiday weekend expected today.

The National Safety Council, which had estimated the traffic death toll of 420 and some 17,000 injured, cautioned motorists that traffic in the closing hours of the long weekend holiday "not only is heavy but dangerous."

Admits Looting "Wishing Well"

Paul Bolen, 36, rear 137½ Breckenridge St., pleaded guilty to robbing the wishing well at the Horse 'N Buggy Museum, along the Harrisburg Rd., at a hearing before Justice of the Peace Anna E. Thompson Friday evening and was returned to the Adams County jail to await sentence.

James Hoffman, 30, same address, who was also charged in the theft of money, denied his guilt, and Justice Thompson dismissed the case against him after Bolen's plea.

NEEDY CENTER REQUIRES AID FOR PROJECTS

An urgent appeal for donations of furniture, beds, stoves and mattresses to replenish the depleted supply at the Brethren Service Center, Gettysburg-Biglerville Rd., was made today.

Edwin Walters, R. 3, chairman of the project, said that during the past week inquiries were received from four families in the York Springs, Fairfield and Gettysburg areas. In all cases families with six or more children asked for help.

The purpose of the center, operated under the Brethren Service Commission of the Gettysburg Church of the Brethren, is to help any local family which by unfortunate circumstances is in need of necessary living items by stocking the warehouse with such articles for immediate use.

PRESSING NEED

The present need for articles, regardless of condition, is desperate. Men of the church and the community will make needed repairs to articles donated. Persons wishing to make donations may contact any of the following: Mr. Walters, ED 4-2072; Kenzie's Market, ED 4-2179; Rev. C. Reynolds Simmons, ED 4-4946; Harry Harmon, Mummasburg; Norman Plank, Greenmount; Gilbert's Market, Biglerville. Articles may also be brought to the center any Tuesday evening.

The center has also aided families who moved from Adams County to other states who had become unemployed there before they established residence long enough to receive relief funds from those states and thus were returned to the county in dire need of aid.

At a recent special meeting of the commission it went on record to help migrant workers only when the need is very urgent. Kenneth Foust, board chairman of the Brethren Service Commission, explained that the center was established with the main purpose of helping people here at home and felt that most people who donated to the cause did so with this in mind.

Appreciation was expressed by the commission to all area residents, and especially all merchants, who have answered appeals with donations of worthwhile articles.

The commission welcomes assistance in he work at the center any Tuesday.

Child Is Badly Burned By Coffee

Brenda K. Fair, 1, Littlestown R. 1, was treated Saturday at the Warner Hospital for first and second degree burns of the abdomen, thighs and left leg and slight burns of the right fingers. The child was burned when she spilled hot coffee over herself.

Lewis J. Bowers, 39, Westminster, received treatment Saturday for a fracture of the right shoulder suffered when he was pinned against a fence by a bull.

Ralph Wade, 22, Chambersburg R. 5, was treated Saturday for a laceration of the forehead sustained when he was struck by a baby swing.

Holiday Traffic Deaths Rapidly Near Estimates

Traffic deaths during the Labor Day weekend, traffic accidents killed 415 persons. The record toll on any Labor Day weekend is 461, set in 1951.

The traffic death rate appeared running about even for the similar period during the Independence Day weekend this summer. However, the Fourth of July holiday was observed for four days and the traffic death toll of 509 was a record for the holiday.

The traffic fatalities for a non-holiday weekend at this time of the year, the council said, would total 330. A survey by The Associated Press during a 78-hour non-holiday weekend, from 6 p.m. Friday Aug. 18 to midnight Monday Aug. 21, showed 390 traffic deaths, 14 killed in boating accidents, 47 drownings and 97 who lost their lives in miscellaneous accidents.

Ex-President Given First Medallion By NCWC Group

Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower was presented the first gold medallion by the National Civil War Centennial Commission before a large and cheering crowd in the square at Hagerstown early Sunday afternoon. Later in the afternoon he rededicated the Washington Confederate Cemetery, but only after a drenching rain had almost wiped out a colorful parade and nearly upset the scheduled program.

The medallion was presented by Karl S. Betts, chairman of the commission, who substituted for Gen. U. S. Grant III, who was forced to cancel his plans to attend by the critical illness of Mrs. Grant.

General Eisenhower flew to Hagerstown in a helicopter and on the two-mile ride to the Hotel Alexander he was cheered by hundreds who recognized him as his car rolled by. At the hotel he was given another ovation by a waiting crowd.

GUEST AT LUNCHEON

He was the guest of honor at a private luncheon for 90 persons in the Potomac Room of the hotel where he spoke briefly.

Among the things he said was "the proudest day of my life was in March 1918 when I stood on the field of Pickett's Charge on the Gettysburg Battlefield to accept command of the Tank Corps." This was the first Tank Corps organized in the country and it was located at Camp Colt.

The former president was accompanied to Hagerstown by his military aide, Colonel Robert L. Schulz and George Allen, a friend of long standing.

SHAKES MANY HANDS

The presentation of the medallion took place on a stand erected in the square in front of the hotel and in his few remarks after receiving the honor General Eisenhower said he was glad that he had asked that the program be held in the large square. It was filled to capacity for the occasion and at the conclusion of the program the crowd surged to the edge of the stand where the general shook hands with scores of men, women and children, leaning over the railing to reach down and grasp hands. He was beaming as he greeted his admirers and was forced by aides to abandon the hand-shaking so the parade could move. Then the procession, colorful and with an abundance of music, passed in review before the former president.

RAIN DRENCHES PARADE

The parade was hardly under way before the clouds broke open and a drenching rain poured down for more than a half hour. But the marchers were undaunted and they trudged on to the cemetery where the rest of the program took place.

When General Eisenhower's car was ready to join the parade the rain abated a little and as he drove down S. Potomac Ave. the crowds, which had rushed to doorways for protection from the rain, cheered and waved and the former president, his face beaming, waved in return.

At the cemetery, when the rain stopped, the program of rededication took place. Among the dignitaries on the stand with Mr. Eisenhower were Senator J. Glenn Beall and former Senator (Continued On Page 3)

LIGHTNING SETS FIRE SATURDAY

Lightning struck an electric wire and caused about $8,000 damage to the Vaughn Dunlap home, four miles north of Biglerville, Saturday afternoon at 3:45 o'clock.

The Bendersville Fire Company was called and upon arrival, Fire Chief Chester Ogden asked the quick call operator in Gettysburg to have Arendtsville firemen called to the scene.

Ogden said the blaze apparently started when the bolt went through a wire to an electric stove in the kitchen, spreading to an automatic washer. He said the blaze burned a hole through the kitchen floor.

Most of the damage, Ogden said, was caused by water and smoke.

The home is owned by the tenant's father, Harry Dunlap.

The services of the Arendtsville Company were not needed, Ogden said, after he discovered that there was a "lot of smoke but not too much fire."

FREAK DAMAGE BY LIGHTNING

Lightning Sunday afternoon burned out a television set and an electric clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Fidler at the edge of Bendersville and burned off both ends of a clothes line without doing any other damage to the house or property.

Mr. and Mrs. Fidler were in the parlor of their home watching television at 2:20 o'clock Sunday afternoon when the bolt struck a locust tree 150 feet from the house. At that moment Mrs. Fidler was about two feet from the television set. Smoke poured from the set, accompanied by the sound of shattering parts within the set.

Mr. Fidler moments later opened the set to find that while there had been smoke there was no fire. Further investigation showed the lightning bolt had jumped from the locust tree to a wash line 30 feet away, burned off that end of the wash line, then followed the wash line to its other end at a metal pole and burned off that end of the wash line. Apparently when the bolt passed within 10 feet of the house along the wash line it leaped onto the house and either passed through it without damage or went around it to the television set and clock. Electric lights in the house were not affected.

Voted Against Adjournment

Because the matter of congressional reapportionment had not been settled, Assemblyman Francis Worley said he was among the 84 members of the House at Harrisburg who voted against final adjournment Friday.

He also voted against House concurrence on Senate amendment on the apple tax bill. The amendments were approved. He also made an unsuccessful effort to recommit the bill which he had opposed earlier in the session.

British Urge Reds To Accept Test Ban

LONDON (AP)—Britain urgently appealed today to the Soviet Union to accept the British-American offer of a ban on nuclear tests in the atmosphere to minimize the radiation hazard to human life.

The appeal was issued by a Foreign Office spokesman.

He told a news conference: "We have offered to give up all tests in the atmosphere for all time without waiting for control machinery in respect of those tests."

"We always wanted control machinery and we still want it, but Britain and the United States have made this offer without control and without waiting for any

3 Youths Are Held For Store Thefts

Three juveniles were taken into custody late Saturday night by borough police after receiving reports that they had stolen merchandise from Kimmie's Market, S. Franklin St., and the A&P Store, 236 West St.

Police received their first tip from a clerk at Kimmie's who had chased the three youths up an alley after they allegedly stole something at that store. One youth was apprehended by the clerk and an investigation led to the capture of the others.

The youth who was caught had several packs of cigarettes on him and police Sunday discovered about a dozen cigarettes had been strewn on the lawn of Mrs. Howard Flickinger, 119 W. Middle St., police said. Apparently the cigarettes were thrown there in the haste to escape, police added.

The youths will be held for juvenile court.

Police Checking Legion Robbery

Borough police this morning were called to investigate a robbery at the American Legion home, Baltimore St., which occurred after midnight last evening.

Chief Jack Bartlett said that apparently someone had hid in the club when it closed at midnight and when the bartender had locked up for the night, the thief came out of his hiding place and broke open a cigarette machine in the front bar.

Bartlett said he could not estimate the amount of cash or packs of cigarettes stolen until he checked with the Morrison Vending Machine Company, owners of the cigarette dispenser.

The thief or thieves made the escape by breaking a lock and chain on the north central side of the building.

The investigation is being continued.

Theodore E. Shildt, 90, one of Adams County's oldest residents, died at his home on N. Queen St., Littlestown, on Saturday at 11:40 p.m. Mr. Shildt, a retired farmer, was a son of the late James and Adeline (Reigle) Shildt. His wife, the former Sarah Jane Myers, died in May, 1943.

Surviving are five children, Mrs. Charles W. Miller, Hanover; Mrs. Elsie G. Birdsong, Ft. Walton, Fla.; Mrs. Mildred A. Sterner, Hanover; Claude E. Shildt, Littlestown R. 1, and Melvin M. Shildt, Littlestown; nine grandchildren; 23 great-grandchildren; one half brother, William H. Dixon, and one half sister, Mrs. Mamie Hahn, both of Littlestown.

Mr. Shildt was a member of St. John's Lutheran Church, near Littlestown, and the Ancient Order Knights of the Mystic Chain, Littlestown Castle No. 31.

Funeral services on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from Little's Funeral Home, Littlestown, with Mr. Shildt's pastor, Rev. William C. Karns, officiating, interment in Mt. Carmel Cemetery, Littlestown. Friends may call this evening at the funeral home.

Baltzley Services Held On Saturday

Funeral services for S. Luther Baltzley, 68, of 568 Elm Ave., who died Wednesday night at the Warner Hospital after a long illness, were held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at the Bender Funeral Home. His pastor, the Rev. Maynard S. Barnhart Jr., of the Arendtsville Lutheran Church, officiated. Interment was made in Hillcrest Memorial Gardens.

Mr. Baltzley was one of the county's largest fruitgrowers until he sold his farms and orchards and moved to Gettysburg a dozen years ago. He was a former president of the Adams County commissioners.

The pallbearers were nephews, William Henze, Robert Garrett, Robert Rinehart, Paul and Dale Wetzel and Warren Baltzley.

Plan Bus Trip To Hear Billy Graham

A bus trip to Philadelphia on Saturday, September 16, is being sponsored by the Division of Youth Work of the Adams Council of Christian Education with next Sunday, September 10, the deadline for reservations.

Young people will be given priority on bus reservations but as many adults as possible also will be accommodated. Persons should make reservations with Miss Nadine Reinecker, York Springs R. 2; George Lewis, Gettysburg R. 6, or Miss Edna Breighner, Gardners R. 2, by Sunday. The price of the trip is $3.75 and that amount must accompany each reservation.

The buses will pick up passengers at the Eisenhower School here at 3 p.m. on the 16th and at the Wolf bus terminal at York Springs at 3:30 o'clock. The buses will leave Philadelphia on the return trip about 9:15 p.m.

When reservations are made, it must be indicated whether they are for adults or young people.

U.S., England Offer Plan To End Bomb Tests

GENEVA (AP)—The United States and Britain formally submitted to the Soviet Union today their proposal for an immediate ban on nuclear tests in the earth's atmosphere.

American delegate Charles C. Stelle read the proposal into the record of the long-deadlocked nuclear test ban talks.

He told Soviet delegate Semyon K. Tsarapkin that the Soviet Union has until Saturday to give a favorable reply.

It was the 339th meeting of the three-nation conference.

Stelle, as chairman, began the meeting by reading the joint appeal of President Kennedy and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan for an all-time ban on nuclear tests in the earth's atmosphere.

The Soviet delegate brushed aside newsmen who tried to question him as he walked grim-faced into the meeting room.

There was no immediate indication of his reaction to the Western proposal in the closed meeting. He was unlikely to give a formal reply before consulting with the Kremlin.

GROWERS HAVE BROAD WHEAT PROGRAM NOW

Approval by farmers of marketing quotas for the 1962 crop of wheat means that growers in commercial wheat-producing areas will have a broad program available for their next wheat crop to help adjust production and increase farm income, Myles E. Starnier, chairman of the Adams County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation committee, said today.

Preliminary returns from the August 24 referendum showed that nationally 79.4 per cent of the 265,886 growers voting approved marketing quotas for the 1962 wheat crop. In Pennsylvania only 40 per cent of the total vote was in favor of marketing quotas. However, since the national vote approved, the 1962 wheat program provided by recently enacted legislation will be in effect. The program will include:

Price support at a minimum national average of $2 a bushel, available to those producers in the commercial wheat area who comply with their 1962 farm wheat allotment and who participate in the special wheat stabilization program.

PAYMENTS TO GROWERS

Payments to wheat growers who cooperate in the special 1962 wheat stabilization program for diverting a specified portion of their wheat acreage to conservation uses.

Farm wheat allotments for 1962 which are 10 per cent lower than they would have been under previous legislation.

Marketing quota penalties, at 66 per cent of the May 1, 1962, parity price, on "excess" wheat produced on farms where the farm wheat allotment is not complied with.

The chairman explained that wheat producers subject to marketing quotas of the 1962 crop are those who will have an acreage of wheat in excess of the smaller of (a) 13.5 acres or (b) the highest number of acres actually planted to wheat on the farm for harvest in any of the calendar years 1959, 1960, or 1961.

NEW GARBAGE

When the 1960 ordinance was passed Councilwoman Mrs. James Schwenk noted that while it provided for a monopoly "all public utilities have a monopoly because it is the only way to guarantee that the work will be done properly."

In providing a monopoly for garbage collection, the town's ordinance gave council strong controls over the licensee including submission of a rate schedule, permission for the Health Committee of council to examine company books and records to assure fair rates either by reducing excess profits or adjusting fees upward. The ordinance states: "The rate schedule filed by it (the company) may be raised and adjusted only in such amounts as said committee may approve."

Mrs. Schwenk is chairman of the Health Committee. The committee made no report at the August borough council meeting indicating that it had checked the ADSCO books and approved a rate raise, a procedure that is not required by the ordinance terms.

CITE OPERATION COST

While the ordinance requires regular and proper collection of garbage weekly at a set price, there is nothing that states points from which the collection must be made other than general designations such as "dwelling house, apartment, hotel," etc. However, in discussions of collection problems on July 20, 1959, and earlier, councilmen expressed continued opposition to front sidewalk pickups.

ADSCO's explanation of the changes in a customer notice dated August 19 indicated that the rate change was due to a loss incurred by the company during its first year of operation. Among reasons cited for the loss were the necessity of using a state-approved land-fill at an annual cost of $15,000 and the purchase of new equipment for $50,000. Advance billing, the company said, saved clerical and postage costs and kept the rate hike lower than it might otherwise be.

George L. Radcliffe, Governor J. Millard Tawes, all of Maryland, Mayor Winslow Burhans, of Hagerstown, and others.

Mrs. Walter Daniels, of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, introduced General Eisenhower.

TEXT OF ADDRESS

The following is the complete text of General Eisenhower's address:

"A full century has passed since our nation underwent, in bitter and prolonged Civil War, a grave threat to her existence. Irreconcilable differences in the convictions of a divided citizenry put to the test of arms the asserted right of any state to withdraw from the Union, as opposed to the belief of others who held that we are — always have been — and must ever be, our nation, indivisible. Under this earth, where we now stand, lie men who, in that war, gave their lives in defense of the convictions they held to be right.

"In the background of the tragic conflict was another issue old as history — the struggle for human dignity in all places, in all climes, in all ages.

CAUSE WAS ADVANCED

"That war, fought with courage and tenacity, and ending only when one side reached utter exhaustion, settled the political issue in favor of national unity; while the cause of human dignity in the world was advanced still another step in its long and tortuous progress toward fulfillment.

"As we meet today to pay tribute to the gallant fallen of that conflict we sense, with all our faculties, that our nation, now united, is living through another dangerous trial of strength which, though not accompanied by the clash of arms, is waged on a global scale.

"On the one side are those who, seeking world domination, hold that man is a soulless creature born to serve, without choice, the decrees of an all-powerful state.

Keffer—Leonard

Miss Elizabeth G. Leonard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neal Leonard, Hanover, became the bride of James T. Keffer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Keffer, Hanover, Saturday at 9 a.m. at a Nuptial Mass in the Church of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, McSherrystown. Reverend Joseph Keffer, uncle of the bridegroom, conducted the double-ring ceremony and was celebrant at the Mass. The church was decorated with mums, sweet peas, gladioli and marigolds. Miss Eileen Staub, McSherrystown, was soloist. Mrs. Bernard Henry was organist. Miss Linda Leonard, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Sandra Moul, Hanover; Ruth Keffer, sister of the bridegroom, and Christiana Leonard, sister of the bride. Patricia Lake, McSherrystown, was flower girl. Ronald Asper, McSherrystown, was best man. Ushers were Lawrence Keffer, brother of the bridegroom, and William Leonard, brother of the bride. Michael Graybill, Hanover, was ring bearer. A reception in the Friendship Fire Co. hall, Pennville, was attended by about 250 guests, after which the couple left for a wedding trip to Lake Placid, N. Y. They will reside at 414 North St., McSherrystown.

Mrs. Keffer is a 1960 graduate of Delone Catholic High School and was employed by G. C. Murphy Co. Her husband is a 1959 graduate of Delone and is employed at Rhoten's barber shop, Westminster.

and, on the other, those who see man as created in the image of his Maker, guaranteed the blessings of liberty and master of the government under which he lives. The threat strikes at the very foundations of our nation, at all the values that free men cherish.

SHINING EXAMPLE

"Dedicated, without reservation, to the advancement of our faith in man's Divine origin, we thank these men, now almost a hundred years in their graves, for the inspiration they — and their equally dedicated opponents in that war — have given us in their shining example of courage, endurance and fidelity. May we, always, in the long and bitter contest stretching out before us, feel our convictions as deeply — and so faithfully sustain them — as they.

"Our salute to them — our prayer for them and for our nation — is this: 'May you rest well in this place, and may your sons and daughters ever be the proud possessors of, and live, the strength of conviction, the courage and the selflessness that you so richly displayed.'"

ADDRESS BY BETTS

Before presenting the medallion Mr. Betts said:

"We have met here today in the spirit of the centennial of the American Civil War to honor a great American, General Dwight D. Eisenhower.

"It is impossible for me to dwell back in time on the beginning of the commemoration without seeing as etched in my memory the face of President Eisenhower. For in those formative months it was he who stepped forward, from his high position of authority, as a comfortor of our aspirations and a ready practical helper in the face of inevitable problems.

"General Eisenhower came to the aid of the centennial movement through instinctive and intellectual impulses. He came to know the valor and the sacrifices of American soldiers, as so reflected by history, during the American Civil War. He came to know that the country he so loved became greater in unity as a result of that conflict. Without hesitation, he wanted all Americans to know more of this tremendous and solidifying period and so rejoice, as he does, in the strong progress we have made.

WERE BOYHOOD FRIENDS

"And now, for me as the presentation officer, the occasion affords the happiest moment of my life. This is because I can look back across more than a half-century of time to those boyhood days when I first knew our honored guest of today.

"I should tell you that I am substituting for Major General U. S. Grant III, of the National Civil War Centennial Commission, who is unable to be here today. Family illness made it impossible for him to come in person to make this presentation, but he asked me, General, to extend to you his warmest greetings and congratulations."

In presenting the medallion Mr. Betts read the following citation which accompanied it:

CITATION

The Civil War Centennial Commission: In recognition of outstanding accomplishments in preserving the history of the Civil War and furthering the spirit of the Centennial, under the authority of Section 2 of Public Law 85-365, confers its highest award, the Centennial Medallion, on Dwight D. Eisenhower, first honorary chairman of the commission, its wise counselor and warm friend, for his early sponsorship and effective encouragement of the nationwide Centennial program, for his moving public messages that have rekindled the nation's patriotism and quickened its pride in the unity that emerged from the sacrifice of a century ago, and for his deep and continuing personal interest in this great observance by all Americans.

Mackinson Again Wins At Lincoln

Johnny Mackinson (1080) won his sixth straight feature race and 13th of the season when he captured the sportsman modified event at the Lincoln Speedway Saturday evening.

LeRoy Felty (77x) finished second and Bobby Abel (2) was third. The heat winners were Felty and Troy Funk (28).

Bob Swift (78) won the strictly stock feature race with Johnny Laughman (111) second and George Lesher (30) third. Swift and Don Elsenhour (39) were the heat winners.

A special Labor Day program will be held this afternoon at the Lincoln oval beginning at 2 o'clock.

Angry Race Fans Try Riot For Beer

CLERMONT, Ind. (AP) — An angry mob of race fans, mad because they couldn't buy beer in Indiana early this morning, tried to do something about it, but were stopped by more than 50 policemen.

The shouting, stomping mob was part of a group of out-of-state fans who have been camping at a park near this Indianapolis suburb during the national drag championships at nearby Raceway Park.

Sheriff's deputies said about 150 of the crowd started marching on the business district of Clermont, shouting, "We want beer."

Ten sheriff's cars, 30 state police cars and two cars each from the towns of Speedway and Clermont converged on the angry crowd.

"We were afraid the group would attempt to take over the town and break into a tavern," said Sheriff Robert A. O'Neal.

The group dispersed after the officers arrived, but not before 20 were arrested and lodged in a portable jail.

Lockheed Chairman Passes Away Sunday

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Robert E. Gross, 64, board chairman of Lockheed Aircraft Corp., died Sunday of cancer.

Gross, a native of Roxbury, Mass., moved to California after the 1929 stock market crash. In 1932, he and six associates bought a bankrupt aircraft company from a federal receiver for $40,000, and this firm later became Lockheed. Under Gross' direction, the firm became the nation's 28th largest industrial company.

Lockheed, with headquarters in Burbank, Calif., has net assets of $548 million and employs 66,500 persons in aircraft, missiles, spacecraft, electronics, shipbuilding and other fields.

Gross, a shy, unobtrusive man, was a civic and church leader. He and his wife, Mary Palmer Gross, lived quietly in the nearby exclusive community of Bel Air.

False Dawn Tricks Crowding Champion

BURTON, Ohio (AP) — A white Leghorn bantam rooster crowed 38 times in 30 minutes—five more than his nearest rival—to win the crowing championship of Ohio at the Geauga County Fair Sunday.

What the champ didn't know, however, is that he was tricked into crowing. For half an hour before the contest, which began at 4 p.m., the entrants' cages were covered. When the covers were removed, the birds thought it was day break.

New Hampshire has the lowest homicide rate of any state in the union. It was 0.3 per thousand in 1958, the latest year for which figures are available.

Littlestown ST. ALOYSIUS SCHOOL WILL OPEN SEPT. 11

The St. Aloysius Parochial School will open for the 1961-1962 term on Monday morning, September 11, as announced by the Rev. Dr. John E. Metz, pastor, at the Masses on Sunday morning in St. Aloysius Catholic Church. The pupils will attend Mass prior to the opening session of school. At the Masses, a collection was received for school and debt reduction. Daily Mass this week will be at 7:30 a.m. The annual collection for the Holy Father will be received at the Masses next Sunday at 7 and 9:30 a.m. The ushers for September will be: 7 a.m. Mass, George A. Kress Jr., Franklin J. Kress, James Ulrich, Michael Sneeringer; 9:30 a.m., Jack Busbey, Fred Busbey, Gregory Sanders and Burnell R. Keagy.

Terry Stephen Sanders, infant son of Percy and Betty Motter Sanders, near town, was baptized on Sunday morning in St. Aloysius Church by the Rev. Dr. Metz, pastor. The baptismal sponsors were the child's paternal uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sanders, near town. The child was born August 22, 1961, in the Warner Hospital, Gettysburg.

2 FIRE CALLS

Volunteers of Alpha Fire Company No. 1 answered two alarms on Sunday afternoon. The first call at 2:50 p.m. was to the home of Glenn Kindig, Littlestown R. 2. The motor to the water pump in the basement caught fire, which was extinguished with chemicals. Damage was under $25 and the fire was believed to have been caused by a short circuit. Two pumpers and the service truck were taken to the scene.

The second call came at 3:30 p.m., when the electric light pole in front of the Francis J. Riley property, Littlestown R. 2, was struck by lightning. The Metropolitan Edison Company responded and the services of the firemen were not required.

CONSISTORY TO MEET

"The Hallowing of Work" was the subject of the sermon delivered by the Rev. Glenn Flinchbaugh, pastor, at the worship service on Sunday morning in Redeemer's United Church of Christ. The Scripture was read from St. Mark 1:1-11. The altar flowers were placed by Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Weaver and sons in memory of his mother, Mrs. Cora M. Weaver. The bulletins were given by Mr. and Mrs. W. Richard Marshman in memory of his father, Dr. William H. Marshman.

Redeemer's Consistory will hold its September session on Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in the church social hall. The Senior Choir will resume rehearsals on Thursday at 8 p.m. The church will revert to the winter schedule beginning next Sunday with Sunday School at 9:15 a.m. and worship at 10:30 a.m. Coming events include Harvest Home, September 17; preparatory service, September 24; Holy Communion, October 1.

The choir sang the anthem, "The Lord Is Exalted," at the Sunday morning worship service in Christ United Church of Christ. The sermon was delivered by the pastor, the Rev. G. Howard Koons. William J. Nunemaker, Howard R. Clapper, Richard D. Sheely and Aaron W. Bair served as ushers. The Women's Guild placed a rosebud on the altar in honor of Holly Gay Brown, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Noah V. Brown, Lumber St. The bulletins were given by Mr. and Mrs. Lester L. Hiker in memory of their parents, John K. and M. Irene Forry and Eugene W. and Celestia E. C. Hiker. The building fund treasurer, Joseph T. Bollinger, reported that the fund received $214.75 during the month of August. The secretary-treasurer of the trustee committee, Richard D. Sheely, reported that the cemetery fund received $200 from the will of Mrs. Effie Steick Ingman.

Christ Church Choir will rehearse on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. The Consistory will meet for the September session on Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the church. Mrs. Carl H. Baumgardner, local high school teacher, will be the guest speaker at the church on Wednesday at 8 p.m. Mrs. Clyde L. Sterner, Mrs. Roy A. Sterner and Mrs. Sadie Formwalt will be leaders.

College Graduate Gets Hanover Post

Dr. Kenneth William Ehrhart Friday became head of the department of pathology at the Hanover Hospital.

Dr. Ehrhart was in private practice in New Oxford from 1950 to 1957 and served on the staff of both the Hanover Hospital and Annie M. Warner Hospital.

For the past four years he has been on a residency program in anatomic and clinical pathology at the Delaware Hospital, Wilmington, Del., and he is now a board eligible specialist in pathology. He is also a junior member of both the College of America Pathologists and the American Society of Clinical Pathologists.

A graduate of Gettysburg College, he received his Doctor of Medicine degree at the University of Cincinnati. He served in the U.S. Army Medical Corps in 1943-46 and again in 1949-50, with the latter term spent at the Walter Reed Army Medical Center, Washington, D. C.

Most of those arrested were jailed for later arraignment. Police did not disclose their names.

No injuries were reported.

Most of the youths were dressed in T-shirts and shorts. Many wore college identification, including the University of Vermont, the University of Minnesota and New York University.

11 Are Eligible For 4-H Show

Assistant County Agent Duane Duncan announced today that 11 members of the Adams County 4-H Light Horse and Pony Club are eligible to enter the District 7 4-H Horse and Pony Show to be held at the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Dubs, Mechanicsburg R. 4, Saturday, September 9.

First and second place winners in this contest will be eligible to participate in the state show in November.

The Dubs residence is located along the Sample-Bride Rd., east of Rt. 11, between Camp Hill and Carlisle. The contest is expected to start at 10 o'clock in the morning.

IN CRASH FRIDAY

Two cars were damaged Friday afternoon in a rear-end collision on the Mt. Holly Springs Pike five miles south of Carlisle. State police reported Mrs. Alice L. Kiser, 36, Pine Road, traveling north on Route 34, stopped for oncoming traffic before making a left turn into the Pine Road. Lynn E. Smith, 48, York Springs, was following her and his car crashed into the rear of her vehicle. No one was injured. Police estimated the damage to the cars at $400.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and
The Gettysburg Times
ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO

Capt. Buehler's Company:
Capt. Buehler's company left yesterday morning, to join the York and Adams county Regiment now forming. We have not heard the exact number of men, but if the company is not yet full, it is expected shortly to be so. They were escorted to the cars by Captain McConaughy's Rifles. They had an election for officers on Monday evening, which resulted in the choice of C. H. Buehler, Captain; Wm. J. Martin, 1st Lieut.; James Adair, 2d; Theodore Norris, Ordeley.
Recruits for Capt. Buehler's Company will be received by E. G. Fahnestock to go on Monday next.

Martial Law in Missouri: In order to suppress the disorder and violence in Missouri, Gen. Fremont has issued his Proclamation placing the whole State under martial law. The property, real and personal, of all parties who take up arms against the United States is declared to be confiscated to the public use, and their slaves, if they have any, declared to be free men. All persons who shall be taken with arms in their hands against the Government within the lines of his military jurisdiction shall be tried by court martial and, if found guilty, will be shot. He is pushing matters energetically and he is right!

The Rascal: Among the papers captured, as the seizure of the Confederate Forts at Hatteras Island, was a letter from the late American Consul at Rio, Robert G. Smith, written while he was American Command, giving a list of all of the American vessels about leaving that port with a full description of their cargoes and destination and indicating where they would be at certain times so that the Rebel privateers knew just when and where to look for them, and six named in the last were captured! We wish the villain could be caught, and have the punishment of the "yard arm."

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
West Point Cadet: The graduation of Lieut. Worthington from West Point created a Cadet vacancy for this district, and Hon. John A. Swope, member of Congress, was called on to make a recommendation. There were 15 applicants, and Dr. Swope, anxious to secure the best candidate, announced an examination to be held in the court house Gettysburg, on Wednesday September 1. The examination came off on Wednesday; eight of the fifteen applicants put in an appearance. Yesterday the examiners made report that Elmer E. Reisinger had scored the highest number of points, Caleb S. Brinton coming next. Dr. Swope will accordingly recommend Mr. Reisinger for the vacant cadetship. This is only a preliminary examination; the candidate will have to undergo another examination at West Point.

Stolen: On Saturday afternoon, while the family were at the "ox-roast" at Round Top Park, the residence of Alfred Bushman, Cumberland township, was entered and a dozen plain silver napkin rings stolen. The house was ransacked, but nothing else of value was missed. The napkin rings had the initials "L. B." engraved on them.

H. J., H. & G. Railroad Company: To increase Capital Stock: The stockholders of the H. J., H. & G. Railroad company have voted in favor of increasing the capital stock to $500,000. Meetings of the stockholders of that company and the Bachman Valley company are to be held on the 17th inst., to consider the merger and consolidation of the roads into one company. It is understood that this consolidation is preparatory to selling roads to a syndicate in the interests of the Western Maryland.

Today's Talk

DECISIONS

John Burroughs once said: "Nothing relieves and ventilates the mind like a resolution." The deciding that we do is the hardest thing we do until our repeated resolution comes to us as second nature and we wake to find ourselves among the powerful.

Every decision calls for the exercise of definite mental effort. Every decision must have a work background.

The moment you do decide there is an immediate clearing up that immediately effects every spark of motive power within you to carry your decision out.

Many decisions you make will be wrong. But many of the decisions made by the wisest men and courts in the world are also wrong.

It is the habit of deciding that develops character and brings about the trust of others in you. There is nothing so damaging to character as deferred decisions. Men of action are always men of decision. Often they are great blunders, but they go so much further than those who never mistake, and who rarely decide on anything, that they never fail to stamp their personalities upon the age in which they live and work.

The really great men of history have been men of decision. They got things done. They have left a precious heritage to pass down through the ages. Their mistakes and bad decisions will melt under time.

Decide what you want to do. Then do it. Never mind about the rest.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Love You Liberate"

THE PAY ENVELOPE
Is it all in the envelope holding your pay?
Is that all you're working for day after day?
Are you getting no more from your toil than the gold
That little enclosure of paper will hold?
Is that all you're after; is that all you seek?
Does that close the deal at the end of the week?
Is it all in the envelope holding his pay?
Is that all you offer him day after day?
Is that all he wins by his labor from you?
Is that the reward for the best he can do?
Would you say of your men, when the week has been turned,
That all they've received is the money they've earned?
Is it all in the envelope, workman and chief?
Then loyalty's days must be fleeting and brief;
If you measure your work by its value in gold
The sum of your worth by your pay shall be told;
And if something of friendship your men do not find
Outside of their envelopes, you're the wrong kind.

Teachers Favor Pupil Homework

WASHINGTON (AP) — Should Johnny and Susie be given homework assignments in the first six grades of school?

"Yes," said 84 per cent of the teachers questioned in a recent poll by the Research Division of the National Educational Association. Ten per cent said "no." The rest were undecided.

However, one-third of the teachers were against homework assignments for pupils in the first three grades.

The teachers who said there should be homework figured about three hours a week was enough for the first three grades, and about five hours a week for grades four through six.

Results of the poll were published in the September issue of the NEA Journal.

A Bit Of History About Early Settlers

By B. F. M. MacPHERSON

AN EASTERN SHORE GHOST STORY

The notes on the burial place of Charles Thomson and his second wife, Harriet (Harrison) Thomson are concluded at this time.

Due to the fact that Mrs. Levi Morris, the niece of the second Mrs. Thomson, flatly stated that the graves of Charles Thomson and his wife in the private burial ground on the family estate were never disturbed but instead the bodies of two slaves were disinterred — a rather bizarre case of mistaken identity — and removed to Laurel Hill Cemetery there will always be some question as to just where the secretary of the Continental Congress is actually buried? Since the actual removal was a somewhat furtive operation and the graves in question were unmarked — it is very likely that a mistake was made and the bodies interred under the rather elaborate monument in Laurel Hill Cemetery are not those of Charles Thomson and his wife.

UNETHICAL PROCEDURE
The entire procedure was — to say the least — most unethical. The owner of the Harrison estate refused consent; therefore the matter should have been dropped. Instead the promoters of the then new Laurel Hill Cemetery with the help of a nephew of Charles Thomson, who had no legal right to take any part in the controversy, but whose name lent a much needed note of respectability to what was — in simple terms — a glorified case of grave robbery, was brought into the picture. This part of the story, however, was told in last week's column.

Just where is Charles Thomson buried? Probably in the old burial ground on the Harrison family estate. One more example of the fact that the "bones of great men" seldom "rest in peace." Thus ends the story of the burial place of Charles Thomson, first secretary to the American Continental Congress.

Before beginning the historical and genealogical study of the "Lower" Dutch Reformed Graveyard the story of a fortunate and opportune grave robbery, which took place over 200 years ago, and was considered so unusual at the time that it was included in the church records and but recently came to light when those records were transcribed — apparently for the first time.

The history of the Eastern Shore of Maryland has many connections — particularly genealogically — with southeastern Pennsylvania. So the story of an "Old Hundred" church and one of its priests will not be out of place on this column.

MARYLAND PARISHES
The Church of England (Episcopal) Parishes on the Eastern Shore of Maryland were, in the main, created by an Act of the Parliament of Great Britain passed March 12, 1691. Thirty parishes were laid out and many are still in existence "a witness to the debt of the Church to the wisdom and fidelity of the men and women whose work, done so long ago, lives today."

Among the parishes mentioned above is Old Whitmarsh Church, located near Easton, in Talbot County, Maryland. It is not known just how old this parish really is but when Saint Peter's Parish was laid out in 1692, "Old Whitmarsh," located in the center of the territory, was the only church of the Parish. Apparently it was built before the Act of 1691 was passed.

RECTOR IN 1708
The names of many of the early priests at Old Whitmarsh Church are not known — except in fragments. The parish secretary did not see fit to record the name of the pastor when listing baptisms, marriages, deaths and other parish news. However, "the Rev. Father William Glen, an Orthodox priest of the Church of England, sent by the Right Reverend Father in God, Henry, Lord Bishop of London," was received as rector on July 18, 1708. Father Glen remained for six years and was followed in 1714 by the Rev. Father Daniel Maynardier, a Huguenot who served the Parish until his death in 1745-46.

A bronze plaque set in the cover of the old "Vicars' Vault," located to the left of the brick altar in Whitmarsh Church, states that here lies buried "Daniel Maynardier, Huguenot, 16 - 7 - 1745, Rector of Saint Peter's Parish, and his wife, Hannah Martin." For Mrs. Maynardier, at least, this tomb was a second burial — a second resting place. Her story, as recorded in the records of Saint Peter's Parish, is as follows—

The Rev. Father Daniel Maynardier during his years of study in England met, loved and eventually married Hannah Martin, daughter of an old, respected, and wealthy English family. After Father Maynardier was ordained he decided on America as his field of labor and was appointed vicar of St. Peter's in the Province of Maryland. His wife accompanied him and after they were settled on the "Glebe Farm" took over the duties of "helpmate" to her husband's far-flung parish. During their first years at Whitmarsh Church several children were born to the Maynardiers and the future appeared to be bright with promise.

SUBJECT TO FEVERS
The eastern shore of Maryland, particularly in the early days, was not an outstandingly healthy place to live. People living in the region were subject to fevers of various types (probably malarial) and although many lived to "tell the tale" others died as a result of the attacks. Quarantine was unknown and of course the sickness spread from house to house — from family to family — one bright spring day in the year 1722 the young wife of the vicar of Whitmarsh Church became ill. In spite of all available medical aid the patient at the rectory became steadily worse and when it became apparent to all concerned that time was running out for Hannah Maynardier she called her husband to her and requested that in the event of her death a valuable family ring that she had worn most of her life be left on her finger at burial. The husband made the requested promise and a few hours later, or so it was thought, the patient died.

Funerals in that early day invariably took place in the church if one was available and were the event not only a tribute of respect to the "departed" but also a social occasion. People living within a radius of many miles of Whitmarsh Church gathered for the funeral service of the vicar's wife and among the congregation on that long-ago day were several strangers among whom were two young men unknown to the members of the parish but on this sad occasion their presence aroused little, if any, curiosity. The individuals in question, however, noticed the valuable ring on the hand of the corpse, and made a few plans of their own.

The story of Hannah (Martin) Maynardier will be continued in this column next week.

WEST FACING TRAVEL BANS AFTER TREATY

BERLIN (AP)—The East German Communists threatened to impose air, road and water controls on Allied movements to West Berlin after a peace treaty with the Soviet Union.

The warning came from Gerhart Eisler, a key propagandist in East Germany. Eisler wrote in the Communist youth newspaper, Junge Welt, that the East German government permitted 1,500 American combat troops to travel through the Communist zone to West Berlin two weeks ago only to avoid "sharpening" the tension surrounding the whole Berlin problem.

But, he said, once a treaty is signed with the Soviet Union, "no one can use the highways of the German Democratic Republic without permission."

"Every government will then deal with the government of the German Democratic Republic in order to use the traffic lanes, the canals, the highways and the air corridors," he said.

The Soviets have threatened to sign a peace treaty with the East Germans by the end of the year.

Sierra Leone, a recently independent African state, was settled by slaves repatriated from England.

KILLER READS COMIC BOOKS WHILE PARTNER ADMITS SPREE

BIG SPRING, Tex. (AP)—An eighth-grade girl and her male companion "don't seem to be worrying" about their fate after admitting slaying four persons in an Illinois-to-Texas crime spree.

Sheriff Miller Harris said Sunday John Edwin Myers, 32, of Chicago, told Illinois officers everything they want to know about the murders.

As her companion related the wild spree to officers, Donna Marie Stone, 13, read comic books in her jail cell.

KILLED FOUR
Before the two were arrested near Midland, in west Texas, they had killed two persons in Illinois, one in Missouri and another in Texas.

Myers is charged with murder in the death of a hitchhiker, Lee DakRaai, 30, of Ottumwa, Iowa, the last of the victims. He was shot as he sat asleep in the back of a car near Fort Worth.

Their first victims were George Ballard, 47, of near Belleville, Ill., and his daughter Carol, 11, shot to death while fishing.

NETTED $16
Margaret Wernicker, 39, who resided near Belleville, met a similar fate between Alton and Thayer, Mo., where the Stone girl shot her twice in the back after the pair had kidnapped her.

Both Myers and the girl admitted the slayings which they said netted them $16.

Dist. Atty. Gifford Jones said he would seek a murder indictment against Myers when a special session of the grand jury meets Wednesday. The girl is being held for juvenile authorities.

COBURN SAYS HE FOUND LIFE BEGAN AFTER 40

By JAMES BACON
AP Movie-TV Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The will of the late Charles Coburn contained a classic understatement—"I am content with the knowledge that I have lived."

The 84-year-old actor, until he married a widow more than 40 years his junior last year, was one of Hollywood's amazing swingers.

Once I spotted him in Las Vegas at 8 a.m. He was with a couple of showgirls in their early twenties. Charlie was wide awake and the girls were half-dead.

LIKE BOGART
Coburn called me over. "Hey, Jim, where can you go around this town at 8 a.m. Everything's folded up."

One of the showgirls could do nothing but moan. The other pleaded: "Take him with you. He's killing us. He hasn't stopped since the cocktail hour yesterday. He's taken us to every joint in town."

Like Humphrey Bogart, he played hard but he also worked hard. No one was more professional on the set than Charlie. He couldn't stand actors in their sixties allowing themselves to go to pot.

Sex appeal, he always said, was like good Scotch. It improved with age.

Charlie was a night club owner's dream. He came early and stayed late. In his prime, late seventies and early eighties, he hit all the openings—and danced with all the girls.

No waiters either. He jitterbugged and he could cha cha like a Cuban revolutionary—and never he smiled.

Kennedys To Hold Family Homecoming

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP)—President Kennedy and his family combined the Labor Day holiday with a homecoming and birthday festivities today as the chief executive spent his 10th summer weekend on Cape Cod.

The outlook was good for another cruise on Nantucket Sound, and the President's father, Joseph P. Kennedy, was on hand to enjoy the family fun.

The elder Kennedy came back to Cape Cod Sunday after vacationing on the French Riviera. At Barnstable Airport, he was greeted by the wife of Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy and five of their seven children.

The former ambassador to Great Britain observes his 73rd birthday Wednesday. Ethel Kennedy also is marking a birthday this weekend.

The President, his wife and daughter Caroline, 3½, braved threatening weather Sunday and spent two hours on foggy Nantucket Sound aboard the 52-foot cruiser Marlin.

HURRICANE IS SET TO MOVE PAST BERMUDA

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Bearing no danger to land areas at present, Hurricane Betsy early this morning was well out in the Atlantic Ocean, moving to the northwest at 20 miles per hour.

Forecasters at the Miami Hurricane Center said the season's second tropical storm picked up a little speed during the night, but showed no intensification.

At 5 a.m. the hurricane was about 1,000 statute miles east of San Juan, P.R., and 2,000 miles east-southwest of Miami.

PLANE TAKES READINGS
A hurricane hunter airplane left San Juan before daylight to make new readings on top winds, size and direction.

Betsy's highest winds were estimated at 100 m.p.h. near the center. Gale winds extend out 200 miles to the northeast and 75 miles to the southwest of the storm's center.

Indications are the hurricane will continue moving to the northwest with little change in size or intensity for the next 12 hours.

Barring a change in path brought on by an unforeseen pressure system, the hurricane should pass east of Bermuda, a forecaster said.

POLICE CHARGE 2 IN YORKER'S FATAL MISHAP

DALLASTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Police have filed involuntary manslaughter charges against two men in connection with the weekend death of Carol E. Ruth, 12, daughter of Mrs. Edith Ruth, of missed a dance. Often he would complain if the band played too much slow, dreamy music.

Once he told me the two secrets of his amazing vitality.

DON'T FIGHT SLEEP
"I believe a man is a damn fool if he takes a drink before 40 and a bigger damn fool if he doesn't take plenty after he's 40. "I never fight sleep. When I feel sleepy, I sleep no matter where I am."

I never saw him asleep in a night club but once after his recent marriage to the widow of an opera star. I watched Charlie snooze comfortably through a symphony concert.

After the concert he was the life of the party at a swinging soiree in Beverly Hills.

"I know when to save myself," he smiled.

Prayer Book Translated Into Eskimo By Catholic

URANIUM CITY, Saskatchewan (AP)—"Pray me, Father, for I have performed an evil action."

The Eskimo knelt in confession and, in his own tongue, began the words first set down by the Rev. Jean L'Helgouach.

Father L'Helgouach is an Oblate missionary who has spent three years translating the Roman Catholic Sunday Missal and other prayers and devotions into Eskimo. He used the opening words from the sacrament of confession as an example of the difficulty he faced.

"The English words are 'Bless me, Father, for I have sinned,' but the Eskimo has no word for sin. We used pray to bless and had to combine the Eskimo words for evil and action to denote sin."

The result was 406 pages of hymns and prayers entitled "Angadutika," which translates literally as "my means of praying."

It is used throughout the western Arctic and at many points in the East.

The book was illustrated by the Rev. Jean Colas, another missionary, who framed each picture with the same type crosses and swirls Eskimos use to decorate the hems of their garments.

A third priest, the Rev. Maurice Metayer, collaborated on the editorial work.

Today, Father L'Helgouach is in charge of the Church of Santa Barbara, named for the patron saint of miners, and for a second time finds himself far from the people he knows best and loves.

"I am still hoping to go back, but as the years go by the chances are less and less," he says.

"They do not usually send an old man up there."

York. The youngster suffered fatal head and chest injuries Saturday night when she and a companion, Darlene Einsig, 13, also of York, were tossed from the front car of a roller coaster at a fair here.

The Einsig youngsters suffered multiple cuts and bruises. Her condition was reported as serious at York hospital.

OPERATORS NAMED
Police filed the involuntary manslaughter charges against Billy Johnson, of Leighton, the roller coaster operator, and John Royal, of Cincinnati, Ohio, a carnival worker.

Johnson has been released under $2,500 bail. Royal was jailed in lieu of $2,500 bail, police said.

They said Royal allegedly pulled the starting lever of the roller coaster as Johnson was adjusting the safety belts of the two girls.

LUCKY LABOR DAY LABORERS HARD AT WORK

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—They call it Labor Day, when the nation takes a holiday and honors work by abstaining from it.

Labor Day? It's just another day on the job for the bus driver, the sailor at sea, bartenders, airplane pilots and hostesses, chefs, waitresses, night club singers and strip-tease dancers.

MEANS NOTHING
Labor Day? It doesn't mean a thing to watchmen, circus elephants, the cop on the beat, railroad engineers and conductors, the men who pull switches in electric power plants, and the fellows who watch the unpushed alarm button that could launch atomic world war.

BUSINESS AS USUAL
Labor Day? It's just business as usual to the lion in the zoo, radio and TV announcers, musicians, druggists, caddies and cabbies, telephone operators, bellhops, movie ushers, busboys and the men who ring church bells.

Labor Day? What does it mean to racehorses, jockeys, baseball players, hotel desk clerks, forest rangers, bookies, long distance truck drivers, filling station attendants, dairy farmers, people who operate dog kennels, and fellows who wheel around little white carts and sell ice cream sticks to children? It means nothing but the same old daily grind.

MEANS MORE WORK
Labor Day? It means even more work for many housewives, traffic cops, lifeguards, ambulance drivers, hospital nurses and doctors on emergency duty, morgue employees, bridge and highway toll collectors, amusement park workers—and pickpockets.

Labor Day? When you get right down to it, who does get a real rest from toil on Labor Day?

Well, anyway, there's you — and me. Aren't we the lucky ones?

Groundbreaking For New Novitiate

UNIONTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Groundbreaking for a new motherhouse and novitiate at Mount St. Macrina today climaxed the 27th annual pilgrimage to the Shrine of Our Lady of Perpetual Help.

The site is near the present motherhouse of the Sisters of St. Basil the Great. Cost of the project is set at about $3 million. Thousands of persons participated in religious services ending the pilgrimage. It started Friday.

On Sunday Bishop Nicholas T. Elko of the Pittsburgh Byzantine Catholic Diocese celebrated a solemn pontifical divine liturgy, and ordained 11 young men as deacons.

Phillies Finally Beat Reds, 3 To 2, After 18 Games; LA, Bucs Win; Braves, Cubs Split

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Philadelphia Phillies finally defeated the Cincinnati Reds Sunday after losing 17 straight to the National League leaders. The score was 3-2.

To make matters worse for the Reds, their chief rivals, the Los Angeles Dodgers, edged the San Francisco Giants, 5-4. So now Cincinnati's league lead stands at a mere 2½ games.

Elsewhere in the National League, the Pittsburgh Pirates dumped the St. Louis Cardinals, 8-1, and the Chicago Cubs and Milwaukee Braves split a double-header. The Cubs won the first, 6-5, and the Braves the second, curtailed by darkness after six innings, 4-2.

HODGES STARS
The Phillies scored the winning run in the eighth inning when pinch-hitter Wes Covington singled home Bobby Malkmus, running for Charlie Smith who had doubled.

Meanwhile, veteran Gil Hodges drove in two runs—one on a homer—to lead the Dodgers to their triumph over the Giants. Johnny Podres recorded his 18th victory and 100th of his National League career although he wasn't around at the end.

The Dodgers had all their runs in the bag before the Giants chased Podres on Orlando Cepeda's two-run homer. Dick Farrell finished up, and survived rough going in the last two innings, retiring Willie Mays with the bases loaded in the ninth.

BROWNS, CUBS SPLIT
Bob Friend had an easy assignment for the Pirates. He was given a seven-run bulge in the first two innings and coasted all the way. Don Hoak hit a bases-loaded double in the first and Roberto Clemente chipped in with a two-run homer in the second.

The Cubs slugged the Braves in the opener on George Altman's triple with the bases loaded in the eighth. But the Braves turned on the muscle in the second game and won it on Joe Adcock's three-run homer.

CLEVELAND AT TOP PEAK FOR LOOP OPENING
By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Cleveland Browns, primed to end a three-year drought that has kept them from adding to a bulging bag of titles, are reaching peak performance as the National Football League exhibition season draws to a close.

The Browns lost their first pre-season test, then won three in a row. Saturday night they overcame the Pittsburgh Steelers 38-6 in a rout started on the first play from scrimmage when Jimmy Brown barreled 71 yards for a touchdown.

The Browns, who entered the NFL in 1950, won titles seven of the first eight years.

The league champion Eagles kept their record unblemished, winning from Washington 17-10. Detroit beat St. Louis 20-7 and Chicago trounced Minnesota 30-7.

After Brown's 71-yard jaunt, the Steelers scored on a 44-yard pass from Bobby Layne to Buddy Dial, but the try for the extra point failed and that was it. Cleveland immediately put the game out of reach as Milt Plum pitched a 20-yard TD strike to Rich Kriettling, then followed with a nine-yard scoring flip to Bobby Mitchell.

Two touchdown passes by Sonny Jurgensen, a 45-yarder to fleet Tommy McDonald and a 44-yarder to Pete Retzlaff, powered the Eagles to their triumph against the Redskins. The lone Washington touchdown came on a 50-yard pass from Ralph Guglielmi to Dick James in the second quarter.

LONG TD JAUNTS
Jim Martin booted a 50-yard field goal and quarterback Earl Morrall plunged one yard for a TD as the Lions built a 10-0 lead against the Cards. Charlie Johnson countered with a 27-yard pass-off pass to Bobby Conrad before Detroit closed it out with a five-yard scoring toss from Jim Ninkowski to Dan Lewis and another Martin three-pointer.

The Bears clipped the Vikings with three long TD jaunts in the second half. Willie Galimore galloped 61 yards for the first. Roosevelt Taylor lugged a punt 71 yards for another and Charlie Bivins wound up the spree with a 30-yard pass. Minnesota's TD came on Fran Tarkenton's nine-yard bolt.

A $5 toll is charged for use of the Mt. Washington Carriage Road in Pinkham Notch, N. H. It has been the same price since the first toll was charged in 1911.

NBA CONSIDERS RING TACTICS OF PATTERSON

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP)—The National Basketball Association's executive committee scheduled a meeting today to consider the status of heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson.

Advance indications were that these two questions would be major topics at the closed-door meeting:

(1) Should the NBA recognize Patterson's scheduled No. 13 title defense in Boston against Tom McNeely Jr., who doesn't even rank among the NBA's 10 top contenders?

(2) Should Patterson be reprimanded—or perhaps even stripped of his title—for what some NBA people feel has been a violation of the association's year-old regulation governing defense of titles.

CHANCES REMOTE
A source close to the 14-member executive group said before the meeting that he considered chances of Patterson losing the title "at this time" rather remote.

However, he said he expected that the committee would issue a stern warning to the champion and his manager, Cus D'Amato, to defend the heavyweight crown within a specified period or give it up.

Patterson's last defense was March 13 when he stopped Sweden's Ingemar Johansson in Miami, Fla.

The source, who declined to be identified, said "there is a strong feeling on the part of a lot of people that McNeely isn't a suitable contender as required by the NBA."

TV RESOLUTION
The Maryland State Athletic Commission was expected to propose a resolution urging that the Saturday night fight telecasts originate from scattered sections of the country instead of mostly from New York.

The association's nominating committee has chosen Dr. Charles P. Larsen, a Tacoma, Wash., physician, for its president on a slate of new officers to be submitted at the convention. David Ott of Cleveland is the outgoing president.

SAN DIEGO TOP CHOICE IN AFL

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

Exhibition schedules aren't supposed to do anything except get the boys in shape and give the league some publicity. But the American Football League exhibition campaign has made San Diego a great favorite to win the championship.

San Diego walloped Houston, the defending champion, 27-14 and 46-28. And Sunday the Chargers outclassed the pre-season favorites, the Dallas Texans, 31-10.

San Diego wound up as the only undefeated team while Dallas took four out of five.

SP Playoffs Are Rained Out

Both games in the South Penn Baseball League playoffs scheduled for Sunday afternoon were postponed because of thundershowers.

Arendtsville and Fairfield played four scoreless innings at Fairfield before their game was rained out while Littlestown and Hunterston failed to get started at New Oxford as a midday shower water-logged the field.

Both best-of-three series will resume next Sunday with Arendtsville at Fairfield and Littlestown meeting Hunterston at New Oxford.

MILE HERMAN DOES IRON MAN ROLE AT GAME

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP)—The iron man stunts of Mike Herman and tonight's championship basketball game between the tail, sharp-shooting Americans and the smaller, deft Israeli dribblers have gripped the attention of this basketball-happy land.

Both the defending champion American team and the host Israelis swept to the final game of the tournament with unbeaten records, making for a dramatic climax of the closing night of the competition in the sixth Maccabiah Games for Jewish athletes of 26 nations.

The United States, taller, faster and more experienced, overwhelmed Argentina 104-41. Art Heyman of Duke topped the scorers with 23 points. Israel pulled away from Uruguay in the closing minutes 64-52.

SCORES TRIPLE SLAM
Herman, 24-year-old New York University graduate, scored a triple slam by adding the pole vault title with just one leap of 12 feet 1½ inches to go with his broad jump and decathlon crowns. In addition, he collected a silver medal in the hop step and jump, a third in the high jump and a silver medal as a relay team member.

With Herman and gymnast Ron Barak leading the way, the Americans cleaned up gold medals left and right Sunday. When they stopped counting, Barak, a freshman at the University of Southern California, had racked up eight. He also had one silver and one bronze one.

The U.S. athletes wound up the men's track and field with 14 firsts in 21 events, no golds at all in women's track, all three in rowing, and six more in swimming and diving.

Teen-agers Kathy Flicker, of Milburn, N.J., and Dickie Morse of Nashville, added three meter crowns to their platform wins in diving.

San Diego and Dallas meet again Sunday in the Cotton Bowl. In another Sunday game Denver will be at Buffalo. The two teams have not met this year.

Dallas didn't have a chance with the magnificent Chargers Sunday. San Diego took a three-touchdown lead in the first quarter behind the quarterbacking of Jack Kemp and the running of Paul Lowe.

They made it 28-0 at the half and didn't even use Kemp in the last half when Dallas scored a field goal and a touchdown.

ATLANTIC CITY MATCH MAY BE BIGGEST RACE

By JOHN CHANDLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

With Carry Back in championship form again and 1960 Horse-of-the-Year Kelso going after his 12th straight victory today in Chicago, the next big battle for 1961 titular honors may bring both colts together at Atlantic City Sept. 16 in the $100,000 United Nations Handicap.

Carry Back, owned by Mrs. Katherine Price of Miami, took care of the 3-year-old division Saturday by blasting home with his usual last minute rush to win the $57,700 Jerome Handicap at Belmont Park.

Kelso is the handicap hero, a 4-year-old who grand slammed the big Metropolitan-Suburban-Brooklyn triple this year. Kelso, owned by Mrs. Richard C. du Pont, carried 136 pounds in the Brooklyn July 22, and will have top impost of 132 in the $100,000-added Washington Park Handicap at Arlington Park. The race is one mile, with Kelso meeting 10 rivals.

RIDAN UNDEFEATED
Elsewhere in the thoroughbred picture, Ridan remains undefeated as the potential 2-year-old champion after winning the $213,750 Washington Park Futurity Saturday for his seventh straight victory.

The United Nations is a race of 1-3-16 miles on grass and would be the first start for Carry Back and Kelso on a turf course. Jack Price, Carry Back's trainer, says the Kentucky Derby and Preakness winner will go to Paris for the rich Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe Oct. 8 if all goes well.

Kelso has top weight of 133 pounds for the United Nations, while Carry Back has 122. Carry Back will start training for the race in a few days.

BETTER THAN EVER
"He's better right now than ever," said Price after Carry Back nipped Garwol by a neck in the Jerome with Beau Prince third, only another head back. Six horses came to the wire almost on a line. Carry Back, ridden by Johnny Sellers, was timed in 1:36 and paid $5.90.

Brookfield Stable's Intentionally, who shares the world mile record of 1:33 1-5 with Swaps, and Jacknot Sells's Oink are next in the weights for the Washington Park Handicap, each with 120 pounds.

Ridan won the Futurity in Chicago on a muddy track and jockey Bill Hartack said Mrs. Moody Jolley's colt didn't relish the going. He earned $128,250 and boosted his earnings to $284,050.

WILL REST RIDAN
Trainer LeRoy Jolley said Ridan would be rested in Kentucky, then will go to New Jersey for the $250,000-plus Garden State Stakes, world's richest horse race, Nov. 4. Ridan ($260) won by a length over Obey.

John S. Kroese's Mozart ($19.80) scored a nose verdict over Wise Ship in the $46,950 Kelly-Olympic Handicap on grass at Atlantic City. The race was a preview for the United Nations.

At Del Mar, C. V. Whitney's Spark Plug ($5.20) won the $60,180 Debutante Stakes for 2-year-old fillies by 4 lengths over Kabema.

HARMONIZING WINS
Bruno Ferrari's Harmonizing ($4.50) easily won the $30,750 Niagara Stakes at Fort Erie, Ont., and may be seen under 119 pounds in the United Nations.

Fred W. Hooper's My Portrait drew top weight of 121 pounds for the $25,000-added Pageant Handicap today at Atlantic City. Seventeen 3-year-old fillies were entered for the one mile race on the grass course.

The Llangollen Farm's Divine Comedy, winner of the Saratoga Handicap two weeks ago, heads a field of 11 in the $50,000 Aqueduct Handicap at 1½ miles at Belmont Park.

Greenville Farm's First Balcony has been assigned top weight of 121 pounds in a field of eight entered for the $30,000-added Del Mar Handicap.

SEE BIG CLASH OVER QUESTION
BELGRADE (AP)—A sharp clash developed today among the self-proclaimed nonaligned nations meeting here over whether they should devote their attention to the danger of world war or colonialism.

The final communique will emphasize both the danger of world war and problems of colonialism.

India's Defense Minister V. K. Krishna Menon said the committee is still discussing whether to separate the points into two communiques or combine them. He indicated a two-part communique is most likely.

NEHRU COMMENTS
India's Prime Minister Nehru said the drift of the world toward war should be singled out. But, he added, it was natural for colonial problems and other questions to be given full attention in the conference statement.

Krishna Menon said the Algerian provisional government—FLN—and other countries wanted to keep colonialism as the center of attention but he contended the threat of world war has the greatest urgency.

U.S. GOLFERS EASILY TAKE WALKER CUP

By JACK HEWINS
SEATTLE, Wash. (AP)—Fingerprints on the Walker Cup will be American for two more years.

The gleaming silver trophy, emblematic of amateur golf supremacy between Great Britain and the United States, went to the United States Saturday for the 17th time in 18 clashes dating back to 1922.

Known best for their power golf, the Americans won with deadly approaching and consistent putting. They swept the four Scots foursome matches Friday and won seven of the eight singles matches Saturday for an 11-1 triumph, matching the all-time record.

CHRISTMAS WINS MATCH
Martin Christmas, 21-year-old rookie of the British team, saved his countrymen from a shutout. Playing one-over-par golf for 27 holes and coasting home, he defeated Charles Smith of Gastonia, N.C., 3 and 2 in the singles.

The invaders' other youngster, 22-year-old Ronald Shade of Edinburgh, chased Robert Gardner of New York to the 36th and final hole before succumbing. Shaded led at the 18-hole turn, 1 up.

All other American victories were one-sided affairs.

When Captain Charles Lawrie of Britain and Congressman Jack Westland of America named their Saturday lineups the draw pitted power against power. Irish Joe Carr, strong man of the British squad, met Jack Nicklaus, 21, of Columbus and Ohio State University, acknowledged ace of the defending team.

BEMAN WINS MATCH
U.S. Amateur champion Deane Beman of Arlington, Va., was matched with Michael Bonallack of Thorpe Bay, England, British title.

"For Love Or Money" Opens At Allenberry

Opening at Allenberry tonight is the Broadway comedy "For Love Or Money" about an appealing young girl who takes refuge in a handsome actor's country house during a rainstorm, and stays right on after the weather clears.

Making his first Allenberry appearance in the role of the actor is Chet Leaming. In the role of the naive young heroine is Nancy Donohue. Also comically involved is the actor's leading lady to be played by Elmarie Wendel, who delighted Allenberry audiences as Lorelei's friend Dorothy in "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes."

Playwright F. Hugh Herbert, who also wrote "Kiss And Tell" and the sensational "Moon Is Blue" authored tonight's show. "For Love Or Money" will run for two weeks, through September 9.

Nations and Among the Races of the World." The Rev. Mr. Motter is a native of the community. The Rev. William C. Karns, pastor, presided for the worship and announced that those using their own jars for canning for the Lutheran Home for the Aged may receive replacement jars after the Harvest Home observance. The pastor also announced that the first meeting of the catechetical class for 1961-1962 will be held at 5 p.m. on Sunday at the church when children over 13 years of age are invited to attend; at 2 p.m. the quarterly meeting of the Sunday School officers and teachers, and at 6 p.m. the first fall rehearsal next Wednesday at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Preston Myers will be leader at the September meeting of the Alta Hummer Missionary Society of the United Lutheran Church Women of St. John's Church at 8 p.m. Tuesday evening at the church. Mrs. James L. Rhoades and Mrs. Albert Starnier will be hostesses. The monthly meeting of the council will be held at 8 p.m. at the church on Tuesday.

The Rev. Mr. Karns baptized Dawn LuAnn Good, daughter of Clyde Edward and Jean Louise Brumgard Good, following the worship service on Sunday in St. John's Church. The parents were the baptismal sponsors. The child was born on November 9, 1960, at Sumter, S. C.

The Karankawa Indians, who lived on Padre Island off the coast of Texas more than 150 years ago, were cannibals.

Dale W. Starry, president of the Littlestown Joint School Board, is shown speaking to the more 700 persons who attended the dedication of the new Littlestown Junior-Senior High School Sunday afternoon in the auditorium. Others in the front row who participated in the program are, left to right: Rev. Nelson Brown, York, who gave the invocation; Wilbur A. Bankert, president of the joint school authority, who presented the building; Rev. Alton M. Motter, principal speaker; Supervising Principal Paul E. King, who presided at the ceremonies; Frank E. Basehoar, principal of the high school, who accepted the school from the authority; Dr. Herbert E. Bryan, superintendent of the Pennsylvania Department of Public Instruction, who dedicated the building and facilities, and Lloyd E. Crouse, chairman of the building committee.

Members of the Adams County 4-H Baby Beef Club not only plan to enter 24 calves in the South Mountain Fair Tuesday, but they went to the fairgrounds last week to paint and clean up the area where their beebes will be displayed. Shown painting the fence in the cow barn area are Linda Bair, Littlestown R. 2; her father, local leader, Theron Bair, Littlestown R. 2; Steve Slaybaugh, Biglerville R. D.; Robert Conover, Gettysburg R. D.; Richard Funt, Biglerville; Ronald Funt, Biglerville; Robert Almone, New Oxford R. D.; Benji Conover, Gettysburg R. D.; Susan Almone, New Oxford R. D.; Larry Bair, Littlestown R. D.; and David Almone, New Oxford R. D. The 4-H Baby Beebes are to be in place at 6 o'clock Tuesday evening. Judging will start at 1:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon with the Hereford class, followed by the Angus classes. The owner of the grand champion in the 4-H division will receive a halter donated by the Keystone Milling Co., Littlestown, as one of the prizes.

Barley Farmers To Join Grain Program

J. Glen Miller, office manager for the Adams County ASC Committee, today said barley farmers in Adams County will be given an opportunity to take part in the 1962 feed grain program.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture in Washington recently announced that a sign up will be held this fall for producers who participate in the 1962 program for winter barley. The barley program will provide a diversion of barley acreage on farms, roughly along the same lines as last spring's feed grain program for corn and grain sorghum.

Miller pointed out that barley is included in the 1962 program because the acreage planted to barley has increased steadily since 1952. At that time the supply was in the area of 300 million bushels. By 1958 the supply had reached a record high of 659 million bushels a year.

In recent years about half of the barley crop has gone into livestock feeding. About 75 million bushels annually go into malt production. Special provisions exempt accepted varieties of malting barley from the feed grain program.

100 Years Ago This Week...in THE CIVIL WAR

(Events exactly 100 years ago this week that led to the Civil War—told in the language and style of today.)

"A SPIRIT OF CAUTION"

Lincoln Raps Fremont's Martial Law Edict

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 2.—President Lincoln today pulled the legal rug out from under the controversial declaration by Maj. Gen. John Charles Fremont of total martial law in Missouri.

GEN. FREMONT
Rebuked—but Softly

The unpredictable Fremont rocked the nation three days ago with a Ciceronian manifesto in which he:

- Split the state of Missouri in two with an imaginary line.
- Decreed that any person in the northern part of the state caught with arms destined for anti-Union purposes would be "court-martialed, and, if found guilty, shot."
- Threatened to seize the property of anyone "who shall take up arms against the United States or who shall be directly proven to have taken an active part with their enemies in the field."
- Promised that all slaves held by subjects arrested under terms of the proclamation would be "declared freemen."

Apparently it was the last proviso — the arbitrary freeing of slaves—that the President found most difficult to swallow.

of caution, and not of censure. I send it by special messenger, in order that it may certainly and speedily reach you."

FREMONT'S brief stay in St. Louis has been a stormy one, and visitors from the East have been astonished at the operation of his headquarters.

"THE CONFISCATION of property and the liberation of slaves of traitorous owners will alarm our Southern Union friends and turn them against us, and perhaps ruin our rather fair prospect for Kentucky," the chief executive told Fremont in a letter sped to St. Louis by messenger.

He asked that Fremont modify his decree to conform with the Confiscation Act passed by Congress August 6.

Referring to Fremont's threat to court-martial anyone adjudged in violation of the sweeping proclamation, Mr. Lincoln warned: "Should you shoot a man, according to the proclamation, the Confederates would very certainly shoot our best men in their hands in retaliation; and so, man for man, indefinitely."

"It is, therefore, my order that you allow no man to be shot under the proclamation without first having my approbation and consent."

He has stationed himself and staff in a plush mansion that rents for $6,000 a month from a relative of his wife, Jessie Benton Fremont, daughter of Sen. Thomas H. Benton of Missouri.

His chief aides are Italian and Hungarians, most of whom were associated with Fremont in the historic treks through the West that earned him the name, "The Pathfinder."

These heel-clicking, gaudily-garbed European mercenaries are in vivid contrast to the dusty, ill-suited slow-motion hill folk that form the non-rigid backbone of Fremont's force.

Rebels Occupy Columbus, Ky.

CAIRO, Ill., Sept. 3.—Confederate forces have occupied Columbus, Ky., on the bluffs of the Mississippi just south of this strategic Union station.

Aides of Brig. Gen. Ulysses S. Grant, new Union commander here, said the move-in apparently was bloodless.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain—without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.

Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—discovery of a world-famous research institute. This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation H®. At all drug counters.

WORKING MAN IS HONORED BY NATION TODAY

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The nation honors its working man today with observances contrasting the lot of the free worker with that of the laborer who toils under communism.

President Kennedy sounded the theme in his Labor Day message: "We celebrate the labor of our people precisely because we believe it to be an essential to man's dignity, performed freely and in good conscience, and commanding a just reward."

COUNT BLESSINGS

"We look upon man's toil as an expression of individual personality and will—not a commodity to be exploited for the benefit of a state or ruling party."

Labor Secretary Arthur J. Goldberg said the Soviet Union's space achievements could not mask its shortages of housing, food and clothing.

Noting that the Soviet Union's industrial growth had provided little satisfaction for the average Soviet consumer, he counted these blessings in the United States this Labor Day:

More than 68.5 million Americans at work; average factory earnings at a record $94 a week; average per person income after taxes at $1,974 a year, highest in the world; personal income at $420 billion and national output at $515 billion, both record highs.

NOT ALL ROSY

The picture wasn't an altogether rosy one as this Labor Day began, however. General Motors Corp.'s hourly workers were preparing to close down GM's plants if the company and the United Auto Workers fail to have a contract settlement in sight by 10 a.m. Wednesday.

UAW President Walter Reuther was to take time off from the negotiations to speak at a Labor Day rally in downtown Detroit along with Michigan Gov. John Swainson. A parade of 50,000 Union members was to precede the rally.

Effective seismographs, which measure earthquakes, were not in use until the 1890s.

38th South Mountain Fair Opens Annual Exposition Tuesday Night At 6

Records To Be Set During Week-long Fair Expected To Be "Greatest Ever" There

The South Mountain Fair, showcase of Adams County agriculture—and the machines that make it possible—will open Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock for what is expected to be the greatest exposition of products of the farm and home in its history.

The fair, located just north of Arendtsville on the Narrows Road, will continue through Saturday night.

Free entertainment is again featured, with a committee from the Adams County Senior Extension Club again arranging for the programs to be held nightly in the Memorial Auditorium.

Two amateur programs for different age groups are scheduled, with a run off between the winners in those two events scheduled for Saturday night. Also on the schedule is a teen-age rock and roll session and a Barber Shop chorus concert.

TO SET NEW RECORDS

This year is scheduled to provide "biggest and best" records for both the 4-H Clubs and the Future Farmers of America with hundreds of youngsters from Adams and Franklin Counties taking part in the various events.

Heads of the various departments at the fair anticipate, from present indications, that the number of exhibits of farm products, canned and caked products, flowers, fruit, etc., should set new records this session of the fair.

M. E. Knouse, first president of the fair and one of its guiding spirits since the organization in 1922, has termed the fair "a place to compare our products with others that we may do better, gain new ideas and broaden our lives."

MIRORS CHANGES

The fair has done that for Adams County year after year and its changes over the years have given an exact representation of the changes in the county's way of life.

Farm machinery has progressed from relatively simple equipment to highly complicated mechanisms.

Where 39 years ago the fair was devoted mostly to the strictly farming aspects, over the years increased use of machinery has permitted more leisure for other endeavors, and today's fair features not only the needlework, the baked goods, the products of the farm but such items as photography and art and reflects an ever increasing awareness of the problems of the community.

The fair, through the years, has shown the development of the radio—once a radio broadcast of a fight was a big feature of the fair—to the start and development of television. During the years the home freezer made its first tentative appearance at the fair, then became an accepted part of everyday life.

NOVELTY TO COMMONPLACE

Developments in the schools have been mirrored by the school exhibits, where new manes of school districts, brought about by mergers, first became familiar through the titling of the displays.

The horse and buggy method of arrival by early fair goers soon was replaced by automobiles by the hundreds which filled more and more parking lot area developed for the fair as years went by.

Changes in the methods of handling farm animals were mirrored by the fair. At one time the automatic milker was a novelty, today few cows are hand milked. The cold wall tank for storage of the product of the dairy herd replaced the milk can and the change was shown over the years by exhibits at the fair.

But while many changes have been mirrored one basic thing has remained. The fair today is still a place to meet friends, to study and compare exhibits and to "have fun together," just as it was 39 years ago.

Fruit Awards Being Offered

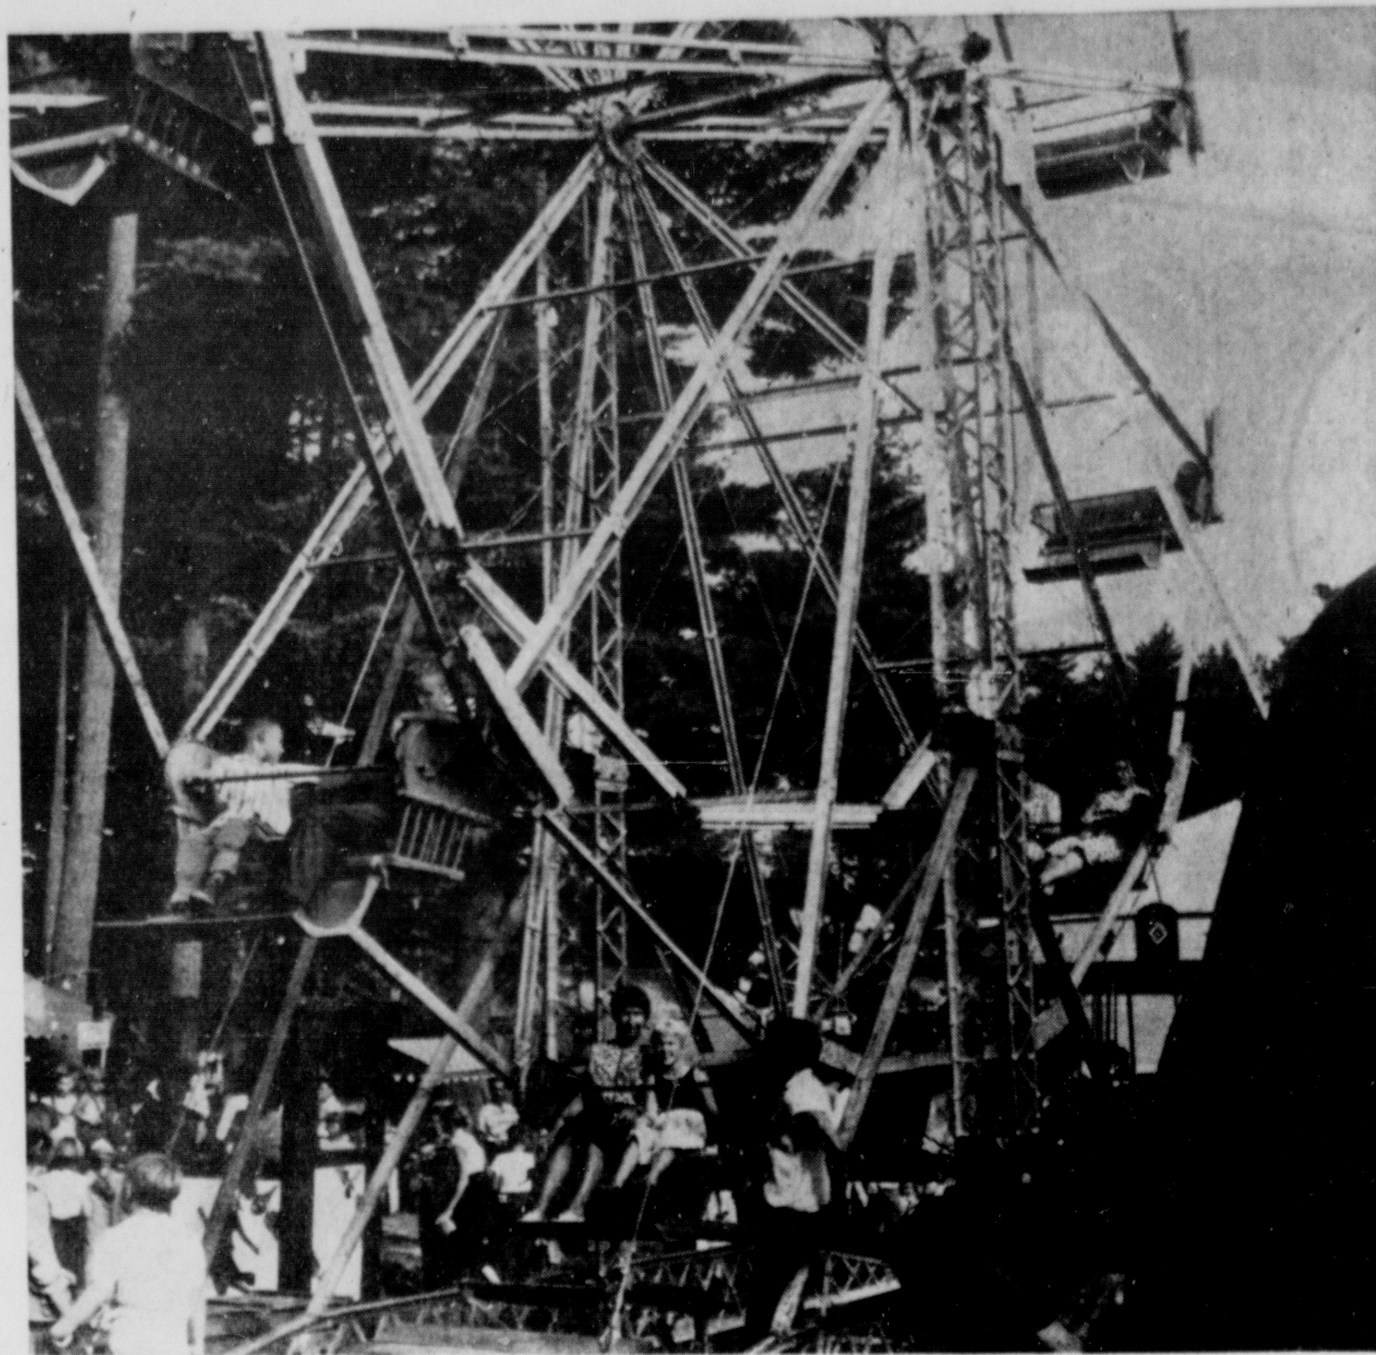

Fruit exhibits in the horticulture section at the South Mountain Fair which starts Tuesday will be limited to one entry per class and there will be five classes. They are apples, peaches, pears, grapes and plums, according to Chairman Guy Beamer of Aspers.

Prizes ranging from $4 to 50 cents will be paid in each class and varieties for the three top winners. Trophies will be awarded to the best plate of apples of any variety; the best tray of apples and the best 16 apples of any variety.

Apple varieties permitted in the show are Red Delicious, Double Red Delicious, Golden Delicious, Grimes Golden, York Imperial, Red York, Stayman, Red Stayman, Rome Beauty, Red Rome Beauty, Jonathan and Red Jonathan. Entries in the other fruits may be from all standard varieties.

Members of the horticulture department in addition to Beamer are John Baugher, Aspers; Mrs. Nelson E. Weber, Biglerville; Mrs. Ryland Garretson, Bendersville; Mrs. Clair Wiand, Aspers; Mrs. Lloyd Garretson, Arendtsville; Mrs. John Wilson, Biglerville R. 1; Mrs. Glenn Hartman, Biglerville R. 1; Kenneth Tyson, Gardners R. 2, and Harvey Dickert, Arendtsville.

Protein levels in rations for laying hens in cages are best at about 16 to 17 per cent, reports F. H. Leuschner, Penn State extension poultry specialist. He says the ration should not contain more than 6 to 7 per cent fat.

Towering over the fairgrounds is the annual ferris wheel enjoyed most by the children but also a treat for many adults in the center of the amusement section of the South Mountain Fairgrounds.

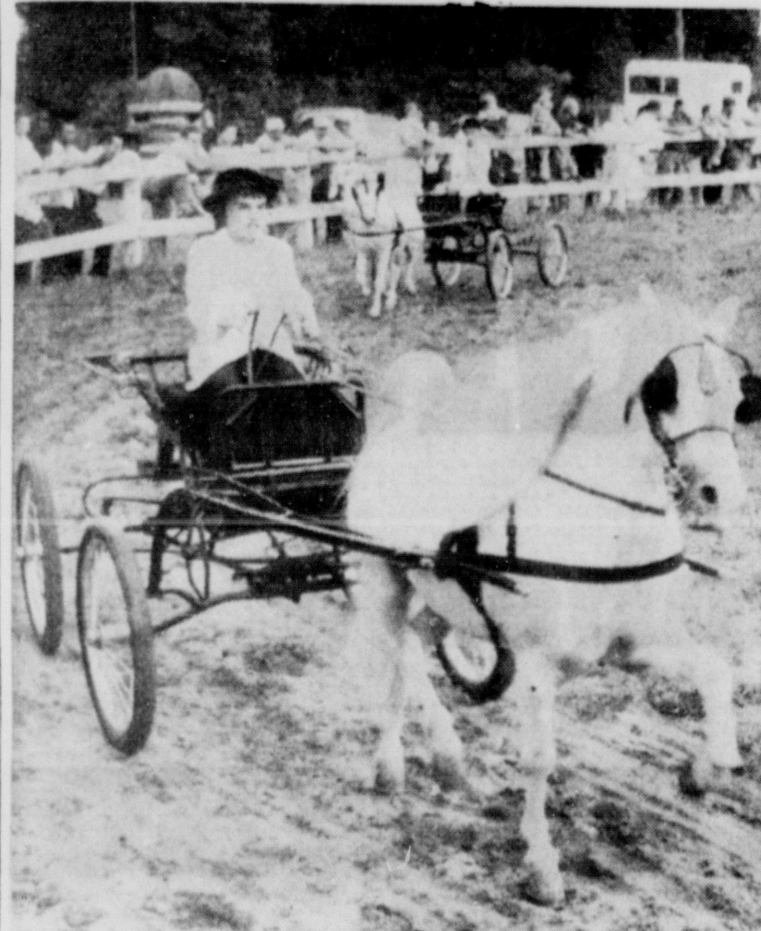

FLOWER SHOW AT S. MT. FAIR IS INTENDED FOR AMATEURS

Mrs. John H. Hartlaub, Aspers, chairman of the always colorful flower show at the South Mountain Fairgrounds which opens Tuesday, has announced that the theme this year will be "Doorway to Autumn."

Awards will be first, $2; second, $1.50 and third, $1. There will be 10 classes, with class 11 and 12 comprising the junior division.

Competition is open to amateurs in all divisions, Mrs. Hartlaub said. Exhibits will be taken in Tuesday from 1 to 7 p.m. and late entries will not be judged. Once the exhibits have been placed in the flower buildings, they will not be handled by anyone but the committees.

An exhibitor will be limited to one entry in each class but may exhibit in any number of classes. In the rules, Mrs. Hartlaub said, "The words arrangement, composition and design are now considered synonymous, accessories may or may not be used as desired, stands and mats permitted in all classes unless otherwise stated. In other words, all artistic entries will be classed as design entries."

Always a feature at the South Mountain Fair horse show are the classes for the youngsters. Here, in last year's show, are shown several of the entrants in the pony driving event.

The length of an exhibit must not exceed 24 inches on the artistic design.

JUNIOR DIVISION

The junior division will be limited to children between the ages of seven and 11 years, inclusive. In Class 11, while Class 12 will be limited to youngsters between 12 and 14 inclusive. Class 11 theme is "A Day in the Country" while Class 12's theme is "Pretty As a Picture."

The space allowed for each junior exhibit is not to exceed 12 inches in width and 15 inches in length.

FLOWER JUDGING

Judging of flowers will be on size, according to species or variety, form, color and substance, foliage and stem, and condition. There will be six divisions with many classes in each division. Prize money in each class is $1 for first, 75 cents for second and 50 cents for third. All flowers in the first six divisions will be judged on quality and perfection in growth.

Suggestions for exhibitors include: soaking flowers in deep pail of cold water several hours previous to opening of the show; endeavoring to use plenty of foliage for the flowers themselves; using specimen flowers in the first selections; removing buds, faded flowers, or injured foliage in the specimen flower classes.

to the classes listed, a separate class will be made for any perennial, if there are two or more entries in that class.

Earl E. Carey, Biglerville is chairman of the horticulture division of the flower department. Other members of the committee include: Mrs. Earl Carey; Mrs. Louise Meyer, Biglerville; Mrs. Donald Horst, Biglerville; Mrs. R. L. Galusha, Bendersville; Mrs. Walter Ryman, Aspers; Mrs. George Baugher, Aspers; Mrs. Clayton Jester, Biglerville; Mrs. Ruth House, Aspers; Mrs. Roy Peters, Aspers; Mrs. John Lawver, Biglerville; Mrs. M. G. Rouser, Guernsey; Mrs. Richard Beatt, Aspers; Mrs. Charles Raffensperger, Biglerville; Mrs. Harold Huettner, Guernsey; Mrs. Pauline Crouse, Gettysburg; Mrs. J. Henry Donharl, Biglerville; Mrs. Ruth Winand, Aspers; Mrs. Elma Group, Aspers; Mrs. Elsie Hoover, Aspers; Mrs. Glenn Crist, Guernsey; Mrs. Pauline Adamik, Guernsey.

NEXT FRIDAY DESIGNATED AS "VO-AG" DAY AT FAIR

Eight contests for any Future Farmers of America student in Adams and Franklin Counties will be held in the Vocational Agriculture Department at the South Mountain Fair which opens Tuesday.

Vocational Agriculture Day has been designated as Friday, the day the judging of the projects will take place.

"ag" in the two counties is eligible to participate. The judging will be in dairy, farm mechanics, swine, agronomy, fruit, land and tractor driving. Richard C. Lighter is in charge of all the contests along with the "vo-ag" teachers of the two counties.

Any vocational agriculture or home economics departments are entitled to place an educational exhibit in the "school building" and will receive $20 from the fair association. They must be neat in appearance and have eye appeal to the public.

TO AWARD MEDALS

All judging of contests will be held from 10:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. In all but the tractor driving contest, prizes will be gold medals for first and second; silver medals for third and fourth, and bronze medals for fifth and sixth. The first through tenth winners will receive ribbons and the eleventh through fifteenth will receive honorable mention ribbons.

In the tractor driving contest, a gold medal will be awarded for first, silver for second, bronze for third and the first through tenth will receive ribbons.

Elmer H. Schriver of Gettysburg is chairman of the dairy judging contest and Robert Leiter of Fairfield is cochairman. Other committee heads are: Farm mechanics, John White, Biglerville, chairman, and Cecil Snyder, Biglerville; swine, George Glenn, Gettysburg, chairman, and John Johnson, Mercersburg; agronomy, William Robinson, Chambersburg, chairman and Carroll Slot-hour, Bermudian Springs; fruit judging, Charles Smith, New Oxford, chairman, and Stephen Heyser, Bermudian Springs; land judging, Linn Shatzer, Saint Thomas, chairman; Paul Tate, Willow Run, and Paul Benchoff, Waynesboro.

The fruit judging contest is Aspers, and Mrs. Rita Wayburn, Aspers.

sponsored by the C. H. Musselman Co. in cooperation with the fair association. A loving cup and an all-expense paid trip to the state FFA convention held at Pennsylvania State University are provided by Musselmans to the two-county winner. Medals and ribbons have been provided by the fair association.

The land judging contest is sponsored by the Adams Agstone Co., Hanover, and the Fry Coal and Stone Co. of Mercersburg, in (Continued On Page 10)

15 Classes, One For Young Exhibitors, In Culinary Dept. Of South Mt. Fair Exposition

Fifteen classes, including one for juveniles, will offer a wide variety of displays in the culinary department at the South Mountain Fair which opens Tuesday.

All exhibits for any premium in the fruit or vegetable classes must have been canned by the exhibitor since last year's fair and all entries must be displayed in a pint or quart jar with labels on the lower edge. Entries will be received up to 6 p.m. Tuesday and judging will take place Wednesday morning. The judges may, if necessary, open jellies and preserves for tasting in the performance of their duties.

Single entries in canned fruits classes will be judged on color, as close to natural; clearness, syrup or liquid clear and free from seeds; packing, arrangements with reference to symmetry and best use of it; containers, uniform to size and shape with as large a proportion of solids to liquid as possible, and labels suitable, uniform and neat; flavor, as close as possible, and canned fruits should not be too sweet; texture, tender but not over-looked, uniformly ripened products while only young and tender vegetables should be canned.

BASIS OF JUDGING

Ten points will be awarded for color, 10 for clearness, 10 for arrangements, 10 for containers, 40 for flavor and 20 for texture. The labels on the jars must tell by what method the display was canned. Premiums include 80 cents for first prize; 60 cents for second and 40 cents for third.

The display of fruits, to be exhibited in quart jars only, will be six different jars of any listed fruits. Prizes include $1.30 for first; $1.10 for second and 95 cents for third.

In the single entry canned vegetables class, the exhibits must be put up by the cold or hot pack method, and the vegetables must not be mixed. First prize is 80 cents, second 60 and third, 40 cents.

JELLIES, MEATS, BREAD

In the jellies class, judging will be based on texture, appearance, container and flavor. Exhibits must be placed in regular jelly glasses which must have tin tops and be labeled. Prizes are 50, 40 and 35 cents. The same applies for preserves, Class 6. In the dried fruits and vegetables class, exhibits will be placed in quart jars with 60 cents premium for first prize, 50 cents for second and 40 cents for third.

Canned meats (single entries) will be judged on texture, color and appearance with 80 cents for first prize, 60 cents for second and 40 cents for third.

In the yeast, bread and rolls department baked goods will be scored on general appearance, 10 points; crust, 15 points; crumb, 40 points; and flavor, 35 points. In these categories, size, shape, color, texture, depth, lightness, moisture, grain, odor and taste will all be considered by the judges. Yeast breads should be about nine inches by four inches oblong with a uniform golden brown, crisp and smooth crust. The crumb should be well raised, equally light throughout with heavy spots or streaks absent. Flavor should be sweet and nutty with no suggestion of yeast taste. Prizes for white bread, graham bread and six rolls are 60 cents for first, 50 cents for second and 40 cents for third.

PRIZE FOR DECORATIONS

In the cake class, judging will be based on size, shape, color, crust, flavor, texture, moisture and frosting. They should be of medium size, uniform in thickness; level or slightly rounded; made with fat, no taste of shortening and show no signs of doughiness. Cakes should be moist, but elastic when pressed with a finger and the frosting should be smooth in appearance and spongy, not highly colored and mild in flavor. Prizes in butter cakes, sponge cake, gingerbread and best artistically decorated cake range from $2.25 to 60 cents.

Cookie exhibits should be limited to a half dozen per entry and the fair will furnish the container. Molasses, sugar and oatmeal cookies are permitted with prizes of $1, 80 and 60 cents offered as premiums.

STANDARDS FOR PIES

Pie standards include color, even light brown; texture of crust, tender flaky on cutting; flavor of filling, agreeable and well blended; and consistency of filling, moist fruit, not too syrupy and thoroughly cooked. Ten points will be offered for color, 10 for crust, 25 for texture, 15 for flavor and 40 for filling. Prizes include $1.10 for first; 90 cents for second and 75 cents for third.

Pickle entries must be placed in a quart jar and prizes are 80, 60 and 40 cents. Beets, mixed pickle, peppers, pears, sweet and sour pickles are permitted.

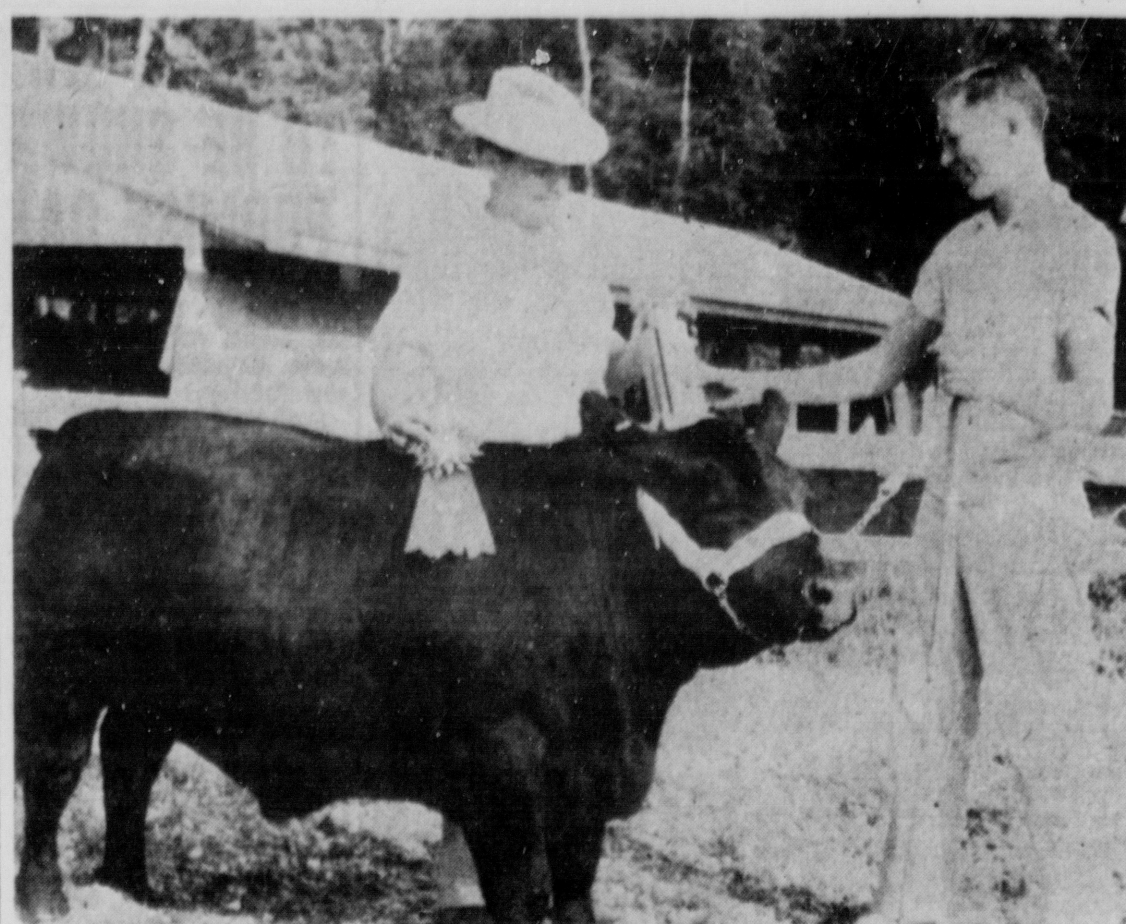

Soap exhibits are to consist of three cakes of soap with 40, 30 and 20 cents offered as prizes.

Juveniles are invited to submit exhibits to be placed in quart jar in fruit, vegetable, pie, cake and cookie classes. Contestants must be between 12 and 17 years old and are to attach one's age to the exhibit. Prizes in each section range from $2 to 40 cents.

Members of the culinary department committee are Mrs. Guy Herring, Arendtsville; Mrs. Ruth Trostle, Biglerville; and Mrs. Sara Staub, Biglerville.

BEAVER FALLS, Pa. (AP) — A 86-year-old patient at Beaver County Home and Hospital was struck and killed by an auto Thursday as he walked along the hospital driveway.

County home authorities said Martin Kovevic died instantly of a broken neck. They identified the driver as Lester H. Smith, 32, of Beaver Falls.

For youngster and adult alike, there are interesting comparisons at the fair. A baby beef that won both a grand champion trophy and a blue ribbon is worth talking about to one's friends.

Sometimes the fair provides music and dancing in the entertainment, as gifted amateurs display dancing skill.

GIVE SCORING PLAN ON 4-H CLUB DISPLAYS

Prizes in 4-H Club exhibits will be scored in points, with 90 to 100 meriting a blue ribbon and $10; 80 to 90, a red ribbon and $7; and 70 to 80, a white ribbon and $5.

All classes will be open to any 4-H Club member. In the club exhibits, each exhibitor will have a three-foot front and will display only those things made by club members in relation to their club projects the past year.

The judging will be based on 30 points for effectiveness in catching attention, including appeal, effective use of motion, color, light, position, easily seen from the eye and originality, showing new and interesting relations, not commonplace.

UP TO JUDGES

Ten points will be awarded for effectiveness in holding interest. This includes utility, title sign portraying objective of exhibit, simple and clear; one central thought, all parts related to central thought and educational value, demonstrating approval practices or contrasting a good and poor practice which features important phases of 4-H community endeavor and gives impression of being worthwhile.

Ten points will also be awarded for general appearance, attractive arrangements, labels, chart, picture, objects, effective printing, balance and neatness and placing background. English should have correct spelling, grammar and punctuation.

The final five points will be on ease of transporting, including parts easy to erect, place and arrangement; exhibit intact, in good condition; completeness and no parts missing.

All other prizes worthy of a premium as decided by the judges shall be awarded a prize of $3. If the judges think no exhibit is worthy of a premium, no premium will be paid.

10 LIVESTOCK DIVISIONS

In livestock judging, the ani-

FARM CROPS DISPLAY TO BE FAIR FEATURE

Farm crop exhibits in the South Mountain Fair which opens Tuesday will be limited to Adams County farmers.

Six divisions will be open, including corn, small grains, soybeans, sorghum, hays and potatoes.

In the corn division, there are six classes. Class 1 is ears of hybrid dent and open pollinated from the 1960 crop while Class 2 is 10 ears of the 1961 crop from the same varieties. Class 3 is the best 10 ears of popcorn with roots Class 4 is three stalks with roots showing corn for grain and corn males must conform with health rules and regulations set forth by the fair directors. If there are more than 12 in any breed, the class will be divided into light-weight and medium weight class.

There will be 10 divisions for club exhibits, including baby beef steers, dairy cattle, lambs, feeder pigs, fitting contest, showing contest, 4-H vegetable and field crop projects, the 4-H flower project, insect collections and electric project. The Danish system of merit awards will be used for the vegetable, field crops, flower insect and electric projects. Blue ribbon winners will receive $1; red ribbons 75 cents and white ribbons, 50 cents.

There are six divisions for 4-H home economics clubs, including child care, baby-sitting, clothing, foods, outdoor cookery and learn by doing at home.

USE DANISH SYSTEM

The Danish system of merit awards will be used here with the same premium for ribbon winners. Any exhibit not worthy of a ribbon will not be given a premium.

The 4-H Clubs committee includes Teresa Murren, McSherrytown; Mrs. John Kunkle, Biglerville R. 2; Helen Rex, Wenksville; Mrs. Paul Redcay, Seven Stars; Dorothy Keller, Gettysburg R. 4; Stanley Wolf, Gettysburg R. 2; Jon Newman, Littlestown R. 2; Edna J. Coble, Aspers, and Robert Smith, York Springs.

for silage. Class 5 is the single largest ear exhibit while Class 6 is broomcorn with 10 sweeps. Prizes, three in each class, range from $4 to $1.

Small grains eligible for judging are wheat, barley, oats, timothy seed, red clover, buckwheat and rye. Prizes here range from $4 to $1.

DIVISION ON HAY

Two classes in soybeans are stalks with roots, and variety, and one quart of beans, any variety. Prizes are $3, $2 and $1.

Sorghum exhibits call for 12 stalks with roots, any variety for silage and offer $3, $2 and $1.

The hay division will offer five classes, including alfalfa, first and second cutting; clover, first and second cutting; timothy hay, mixed hay. All exhibits will consist of two pounds tied or one slice if baled, tied. Prizes are $3, $2 and $1 in each class.

WAYBRIGHT CHAIRMAN

In the potatoes division, prizes of $3, $2 and $1 will be awarded for each section in two classes. Class 24 will consist of one tuber, the prize being for the largest. In Class 23, 16 tubers may be entered with prizes to be given for Cobblers, Katahdin, Russets, Sebago, Early Rose, Green Mountain, Pontiac, Kennebec and White Rural.

Entertainment At Fair Is Free To All

All entertainment in the auditorium at the South Mountain Fair which starts Tuesday will be free but everyone will be required to pay admission at the entrance to the fairgrounds.

The adult fee is 60 cents for a single admission or $2 for a week-long ticket. Children under six years of age are admitted free while school children, on all days except Saturday, are also admitted without charge upon presentation of a school ticket.

Children's rates are, from 6 to 12 years, 30 cents while a season admission costs a child $1.

Admission to the grandstand at the Horse Show Saturday will be 50 cents. For those not using the grandstand, there is no charge.

NEW PRODUCT

Elastic shoestrings are among the new notions in the shoe line, says Bernice Tharp, Penn State extension clothing specialist. This new type of string makes fastening of oxfords or slippers easier for children and handicapped persons. Elastic shoestrings have a small flat disc device on one end of the string to keep it in place. All lacing is done with the other finished end of the string and the string may be adjusted for foot comfort.

HORSE SHOW ON LAST DAY OF FAIR WILL DRAW THROUG

More than 100 horses from throughout the Maryland-Pennsylvania horse show circuit are scheduled to take part September 9 in the 14th annual horse show held as part of the South Mountain Fair.

As the equestrian entrants go through the courses of the 23-class show, both audience and entrants will be far more "professional" than the entrants and spectators of the first such show in 1948.

Then, September 13, 1948, The Gettysburg Times was able to report:

"The first annual horse show at the South Mountain Fair Saturday afternoon proved a decided success with approximately 2,000 packing around the temporary ring constructed at the fairgrounds for the event.

IMMEDIATE SUCCESS

"And its success led fair officials to promise permanent improvement of the horse show ring for next year's events.

"Few of those who watched Saturday's event had previously seen a horse show but the spectators roared their approval of all of the horses entered and had three special favorites—the aptly named 'Chubby,' a Shetland pony of Leigh and Tommy Kook-en, Gettysburg R. D.; the tiny foal of 'Peabour Princess' owned by Richard Bircher, Gettysburg R. D.; and 'Red Glow' owned and driven by Ruth Bowers, Littlestown R. D.

"Chubby" won the hearts of the audience by combining dignity with the usual short legs of the Shetland and a decided 'bay window' that bespoke years of good feeding.

"Dr. J. F. D. Bowersox, Hanover, was the judge. Richard Bircher and LeRoy Winebrenner were the announcers. Other members of the committee included Dr. Bruce N. Wolff and L. D. Shealer.

"Twenty-seven horses took part in the five classes: Road hack, ponies, driving horse, yearlings, brood mare and foal."

This year's event will begin at 10 in the morning with the open jumper class, followed by a children's pleasure horse event. Road hack, small pony, western pleasure horse, lead line pony, walking horse and open pleasure classes are scheduled before the group takes an intermission for lunch.

Class Nine, "Knock Down and Out," is scheduled for the resumption of the show after lunch, followed by open three-gaited saddle horse, hunter and jumper pleasure horse, brood mare and 1961 foal, a barrel race, horse driving class, horsemanship class, Adams County pleasure horse, western, children's pony driving, park hack, open pony roadster, open five-gaited saddle horse, plantation walking horse and jumping stake.

cooperation with the fair. A loving cup and an all-expense paid trip to the state FFA convention are also provided to the winners by the companies.

In the tractor driving contest, a maintenance chart will be necessary to enter. The teacher from each school has notified the chairman of the make and model of tractor desired one week in advance. Charles Chronister of Mercersburg is chairman of this event and Merrill Mumma of Greencastle is cochairman. Only one entry per chapter will be allowed to participate.

Paul Benchoff of Waynesboro heads the contest scoring committee. Official scoring of all judging will be done Friday evening at the Vo-Ag room at Biglerville High School at 7:30 o'clock.

A wall plaque will be given to the school winning the highest number of points in the entire contest. The tractor driving contest will not be included in this plaque.

Dry mustard rubbed over beef that is to be roasted gives fine flavor. Try this if your family doesn't like garlic with beef.

OFFER PRIZES ON ALL KINDS OF FANCY WORK

Fifteen classes for adults and on for children under 12 years of age will be open for exhibitors in the needlework division of home economics department at the South Mountain Fair which opens Tuesday.

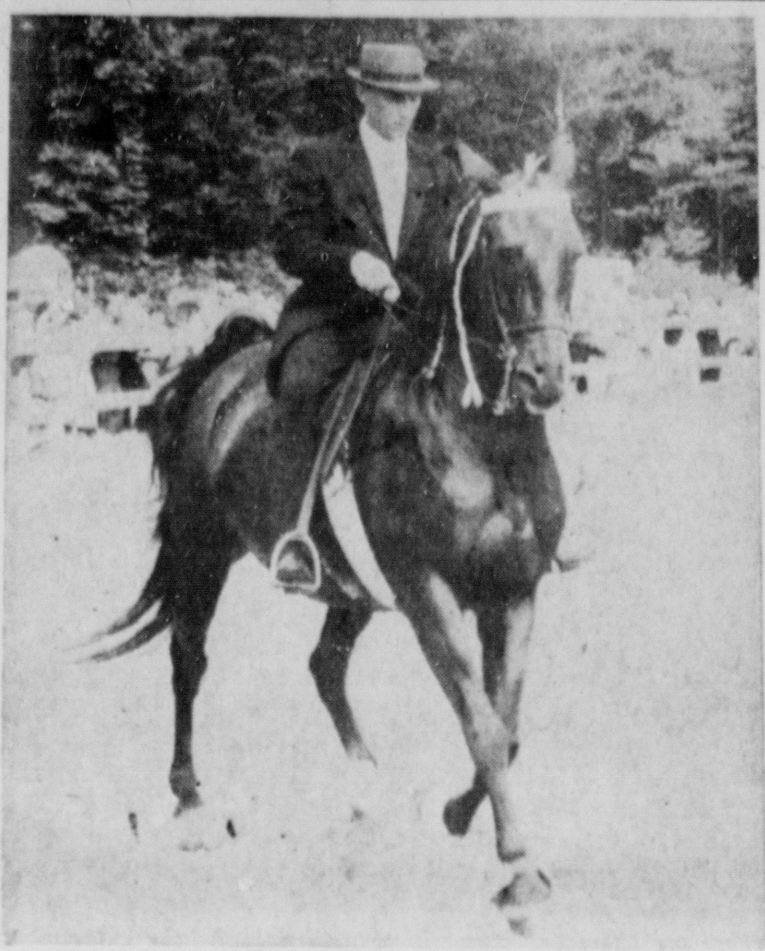

They are plain sewing — machine sewing; stuffed toys, colored or white embroidery, crocheting, tatting, cut work embroidery, machine embroidery, knitting, rugs, quilts, bedspreads, needlepoint, cross stitch, Swedish weaving and novelties. The class for children under 12 includes skirts and blouses and sampler of embroidered picture.

Prizes for first, second and third places range from $3 to 25 cents. In each class there are as many as 25 sections and as few as three.

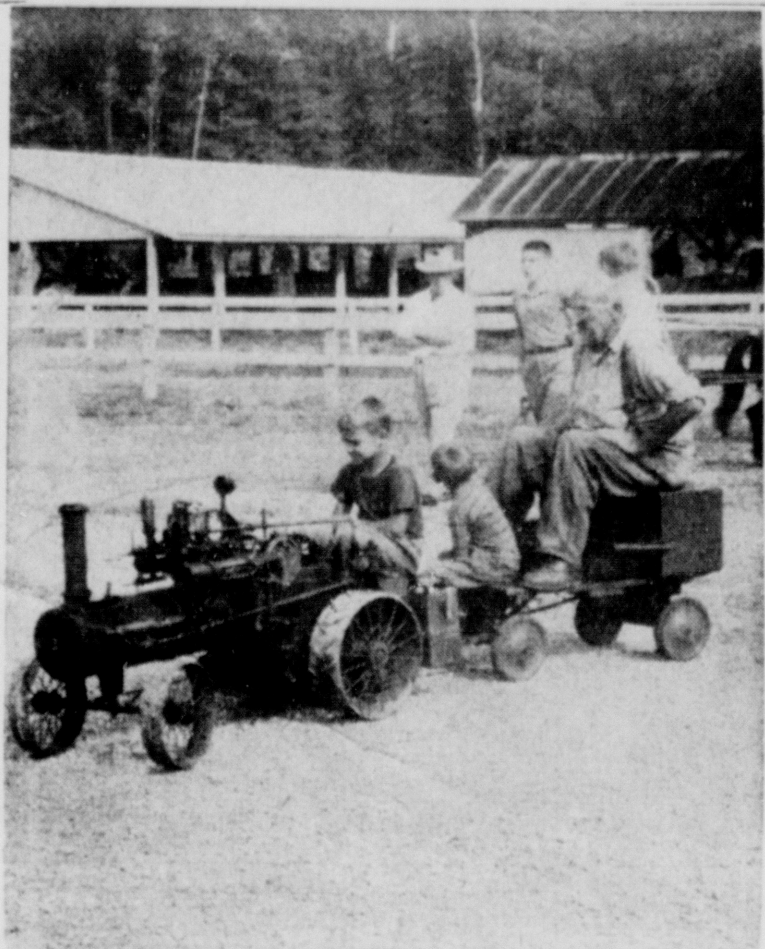

Exhibits will be received until Tuesday at 6 p.m., and the committee reserves the right to accept or reject any entry. All articles submitted for judging must have been completed within the last year, or not have been entered in the fair before. Old exhibits will be shown but will not be eligible for prize money. No articles will be accepted that are not listed in the various classes. An exhibitor may enter only one entry to a division.

Members of the clothing and needlework committee are Mrs. Walter Frederick, Arendtsville; Mrs. Cameron Hoffman, Arendtsville; Mrs. John Frederick, Arendtsville; Mrs. Dale Hoffman, Arendtsville; Mrs. Joseph Sabo, Arendtsville; Mrs. Earl Shreckengost, Arendtsville; Mrs. Francis Cole, Arendtsville; Mrs. J. V. Hawbecke, Biglerville; Mrs. Clair Shillito, Biglerville; Mrs. Edward Stine, Gettysburg; Mrs. William Pensyl, Gettysburg; and Mrs. Isabelle Schlosser, Gettysburg.

Creeping red fescue, Chewing's fescue, Pea Trivialis, and Kentucky 31 fescue are the grasses that get along best in the shade, reports Jack Harper, Penn State extension turf specialist.

A feature since establishment of the South Mountain Fair horse show has been the graceful performance of the "pleasure horses" and the formally garbed riders in the three- and five-gaited contests. Here a rider is shown last year during one of the horse show events.

There are serious things for both young and old at the fair. What could be more serious or more fun than operating a real live model steam traction engine?

BEAVER FALLS, Pa. (AP) — John Michael Patterson, 22, of Beaver Falls, was killed Thursday in an accident at a plant operated by Ingram-Richardson Manufacturing Co.

Plant officials said several chunks of metal fell on Patterson as he was working in the furnace department. He died instantly of a broken neck. Further details of the accident were not available.

SCHOOL ART TO BE SHOWN; PROMISE CASH

County schools again this year will have the opportunity to submit school art exhibits in the South Mountain Fair which begins Tuesday.

Each school system was responsible for placing its art exhibit into the assigned and marked places Saturday but entries will be admitted until Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock.

There is no limit to the number of specimens which may be used by the school, except they must all be placed within the space allotted. The total exhibit, however, is to be representative of the school system.

Specimen material is labeled as such by the art teachers within the schools and the total exhibit is marked with the name of the school or system.

Each school with an exhibit shall receive $15 from the fair association while each elementary school, Grades One to Six, or One to Eight, not a part of a school system, will receive $7.50 from the fair.

Richard D. Krick is chairman of the art committee. Other members are Mrs. Dorothy K. Biesecker, Mrs. Velma H. Strayer, Donald C. Sheely, Esther S. Lory, L. Burnelle Deardorff, Mrs. Ruthetta C. Sheads, Mrs. Mary Ryman and Lorraine K. Leppo.

Best results are obtained by keeping the poultry range clipped short. Tender, succulent forage has the greatest feeding value for poultry, and F. H. Leuschner, Penn State extension poultry specialist, says the top 2 or 3 inches of grass and legumes has a protein value equal to the best growing mash.

Scores Of Leading Citizens Serve As Members Of Fair's "Official Family" In 1961

An exposition as large as the South Mountain Fair has grown to be requires the services of numerous men and women who comprise the boards, supervisors and committees known as the "fair family."

Heading the list are the directors of the South Mountain Community Fair Association: M. E. Knouse, Arendtsville; Donald Rouzer, Biglerville R. D.; Harry McDannell, Biglerville R. 1; Henry Lower, Guernsey; Eugene Kimple, Orrtanna R. 1; Ralph Tyson, Gardners; Fred McDannell, Arendtsville; John Pitzer, Aspers; Arnold Orner, Arendtsville; W. Clayton Jester, Biglerville; LeRoy Zeigler, Gettysburg R. 3; Rowe Martin, Biglerville; Roy Heckenluber, Biglerville R. 1; Clay Snyder, Gardners R. 1, and George Schriver, Bendersville.

Many members of the board have been functioning in that capacity for many years, periodically dropping off the board in accordance with rules of the organization limiting the length of any one member's term, but becoming members of committees during their period "off the board" and then returning to the board when there is an opening. M. E. Knouse was chairman of the board for the first fair ever held and has been active in the fair since. Arnold Orner is a son of one of the original members of the board.

DUTIES ASSIGNED

Committees include advertising, handled by Arnold Orner; catalogue and premium, W. C. Jester and Lewis Bosserman, Arendtsville; judges, County Agent Frank S. Zettie; tickets, ticket sellers and ribbons, Roy Heckenluber; grounds, Henry McDannell, Arendtsville; police, Charles Fidler, Biglerville, chairman, and Charles McDannell, Biglerville, assistant; entertainment, J. Glenn Miller, Hanover R. 2; Donald Rouzer, Biglerville R. D.; George Schriver, Bendersville; Carl Kessel, Aspers R. 1; Shirley Stoner, Orrtanna R. D.; David S. Sibert, New Oxford R. 2; processing, Allen Stouffer, Biglerville. Following a system adopted

A fair is a place to meet friends, to look at animals, and to watch the workmen constantly engaged in some task or another, such as the electrician stretching to replace a light bulb on the wires that overhang the fairgrounds.

A fair can be almost tragic for youngsters when the money gives out—as witness these two, wishfully hoping they could ride the automobile merry-go-round, yet at the same time remembering all the fun they had had on the various rides before their allowances had been spent.

some years ago of having one of the processing concerns provide the men to park vehicles, this year the parking committee is made up of employees of Knouse Foods.

DEPARTMENT SUPERVISORS

A number of members of the fair family serve as supervisors for various committees. H. B. Raffensperger, Arendtsville, has overall control over five committees: Eating concessions, Rowe M. Martin, Biglerville; outside spaces, Glenn Hoke, Arendtsville; cars and trucks, Glenn Guise, Gettysburg; inside spaces, Glenn Kime, Gardners R. D., and midway concessions, Ralph Tyson, Gardners.

John Pitzer has overall supervision of these departments: Farm crops, Clarence Waybright, Gettysburg R. D.; Howard McCain, Gettysburg R. 5; John Schwartz, Littlestown R. 1; Thomas Murren, Hanover R. 4; Richard Flickinger, Gettysburg R. 3; Kenneth Hankey, Gettysburg R. 4; Guy Beamer and John Baugher, Aspers; horticulture, Guy Beamer, Aspers, chairman; John Baugher, Aspers; Mrs. Nelson E. Weber, Biglerville; Mrs. Ryland Garretson, Bendersville; Mrs. Clair Winand, Aspers; Mrs. Lloyd Garretson, Arendtsville; Mrs. John Wilson, Biglerville R. 1; Mrs. Glenn Hartman, Biglerville R. 1; Kenneth Tyson, Gardners R. 2, and Harvey Dickert, Arendtsville, and vegetables, Edwin Bushey, Arendtsville; Dean Asquith, Biglerville; Guy Herring, Arendtsville; Luther Lady, Biglerville, and Emert Hartman, Arendtsville.

OTHER COMMITTEES

Clarence Oyler, Biglerville R. 2, is in general charge of the photographic, culinary, needlework-home economics, flowers and 4-H Clubs exhibits. Members of the photographic committee are E. Philip Tyson, Gardners R. D.; Paul G. Pensinger, Edward F. Stine, Maurice Stoops and David Garfinkle, all of Gettysburg.

The culinary committee includes Mrs. Guy Herring, Arendtsville; Mrs. Ruth Trostle, Biglerville R. D., and Mrs. Sara Staub, Biglerville. Needlework - home economics committee members include Mrs.

Walter Frederick, Mrs. Cameron Hoffman, Mrs. John Frederick, Mrs. Dale Hoffman, Mrs. Joseph Sabo, Mrs. Earl Schreckengost, Mrs. Francis Cole and Mrs. Gift Walter, all of Arendtsville; Mrs. J. V. Hawbecker and Mrs. Clair Shilito of Biglerville, and Mrs. Edward Stine, Mrs. William Pensyl and Miss Isabelle Schlosser, all of Gettysburg.

LARGE FLOWER GROUP

The flower committee comprises Mrs. H. Hartlaub, Aspers R. D., chairman of artistic arrangement; Earl E. Carey, Biglerville, chairman of the horticultural aspects of the flower show; Mrs. Earl Carey, Biglerville; Mrs. Louise Meyer, Aspers R. D.; Mrs. Donald Horst, Biglerville R. D.; Mrs. R. L. Galusha, Bendersville; Mrs. Walter Ryman, Aspers R. D.; Mrs. George Baugher, Aspers R. D.; Mrs. Clayton Jester, Biglerville; Mrs. Ruth House, Aspers; Mrs. Roy Peters, Aspers R. D.; Mrs. John Lawver, Biglerville; Mrs. M. G. Rouser, Guernsey; Mrs. Richard Beatty, Aspers R. D.; Mrs. Charles Raffensperger, Biglerville; Mrs. Harold Huettner, Guernsey; Mrs. Pauline Crouse, Gettysburg R. D.; Mrs. J. Henry Donahar, Biglerville R. D.; Mrs. Ruth Winand, Aspers; Mrs. Elva Group, Gardners; Mrs. Elsie Hoover, Aspers; Mrs. Glenn Crist, Guernsey; Mrs. Pauline Adamik, Aspers; Mrs. Rita Wayburn, Aspers.

Members of the committee for 4-H Clubs activities include Miss Teresa Murren, McSherrystown; Mrs. John Kunkle, Biglerville R. 2; Helen Rex, Wensville; Mrs. Paul Redcay, Seven Stars; Dorothy Keller, Gettysburg R. 4; Stanley Wolf, Gettysburg R. 2; Jon Newman, Littlestown R. 2; Edna Jane Coble, Aspers, and Robert Smith, York Springs.

Departments under W. Clayton Jester include dairy and beef cattle, headed by Clay Snyder, Gardners; sheep and swine, headed by Owen Taylor, Biglerville R. 2, and horse show—W. Clayton Jester and LeRoy Winebrenner, Dr. Bruce N. Wolff, Carl Oyler and Leo McDermitt, all of Gettysburg; Cameron Hoffman, Arendtsville and John Schroll, of Orrtanna.

Under Donald Rouzer, Biglerville R. D., and County Superintendent of School C. P. Keefer are the school penmanship, school art and vocational agriculture departments. The penmanship committee includes Wilson D. Wenk, Paul S. Burkholder, Mrs. Mary A. Steinberger, Mrs. Naomi S. Schwartz, Mrs. Sara M. Overcash, Mrs. Janetta H. Himes, Mrs. Joan S. Lobaugh, Mrs. Sarah L. Kilheffer and Mrs. Mary E. Elder. The school art committee includes (Continued On Page 12)

Highlights In History Of S. Mt. Fair Since 1922

The South Mountain Fair started as an offshoot of the then half-century old Arendtsville community picnic back in 1922. A brief history of the fair shows the following highlights:

September 26, 1922—First fair held as a one-day session open only to residents of Butler, Mellen and Franklin Twp., plus adjoining boroughs. M. E. Knouse was president of the first board of directors for the fair.

September 25 and 26, 1923—Second fair held and made into a county-wide event. A feature was the display of 12 automobiles.

1924—Fair cancelled because the committee could not secure from the adjutant general of Pennsylvania the tents it had used for prior two fairs.

1ST 3-DAY FAIR

1926—Wooden permanent buildings erected and three-day fair held. Reuben H. Lupp, near Brysonia, had 1,500 exhibits present from his own farm. A feature was reception of the radio broadcast from Philadelphia of the Dempsey-Tunney heavyweight fight.

1929—First year fair was recognized by state Department of Agriculture. By this time 17 buildings had been constructed and a feature of the fair was a circus.

1930—More than month-long drought withered crops in fields and fair was cancelled.

1931—The fair was resumed. Senator James J. Davis was speaker. Gettysburg Chamber of Commerce sent up a motorcade to publicize the fair. It had 100 people in 43 cars.

1933—A hurricane damaged

The vocational agriculture committee includes Richard Lighter, Gettysburg; John White, Biglerville; Cecil Snyder, Biglerville; Carroll Slothour, Bermudian Springs; Stephen Heyser, Bermudian Springs; Robert Leiter, Fairfield; Elmer Schriver and George Glenn of Gettysburg; Charles Smith, New Oxford; William Robinson, Chambersburg; Merrill Mumma, Greencastle; John Johnston, Mercersburg; Charles Chronister, Mercersburg; Linn Shatzer, St. Thomas; Paul Benchoff, Waynesboro, and Paul Tate, Willow Hill.

both the county and the fair and the fair was extended for two additional days to permit people to see it.

1934—Rain again deluged the fair and it was extended for two days beyond the normal closing.

1936—Three-day fair, best yet, had attendance of 25,000.

1939—Week-long rain led to fair losing money.

1941—Fair canceled at last moment because of polio epidemic.

1942—Fair discontinued because of World War II.

1948—With war and shortages over, fair was resumed with Memorial auditorium built and vastly increased size and scope for the fair each year since.

KILL THISTLES

To kill Canada or bull thistles, George Berggren, Penn State extension agronomist, recommends spraying with amino triazole, at the rate of 4 pounds per acre in 20 to 50 gallons of water.

The crowds wander at ease through acres of fairgrounds. Sometimes they stop to get a "cuppa coffee" or a soft drink, or full-course meals, at the Upper Adams Lions Club stand—a restaurant feature of the fair for many years.

PROTECT ANIMALS

To protect animals from injury, Thomas King, Penn State extension livestock specialist, suggests livestock men correct or eliminate conditions such as high door sills, deep gutters, low fences, horns on cattle, protruding nails, and small pieces of metal that sometimes get into feed.

PULLETS NEED LIME

Growing pullets need lime for building strong bones and later for producing strong egg shells. That's why F. H. Leuschner, Penn State extension poultry specialist, suggests keeping a hopper of shell-making material before the birds at all times after they are six weeks old.

Are her feet killing her?
Or is she abusing her feet?
Spiked heels and pointed toes
Are not for healthful hiking.
With toes jammed to a point,
And heels throwing the weight
Entirely on the sole and toe,
The normal gait is hindered.
Walking barefoot illustrates
A proper weight transmission
From the heel to the toe
That puts a spring in walking.

MILDEW STAIN

If mildew stains remain on fabric after laundering, moisten the stain with lemon juice and salt and spread in the sun to bleach, suggests Bernice Tharp, Penn State extension clothing specialist. Or sprinkle sodium perborate bleach on the dampened stain. Let stand for a half hour, then rinse well. Repeat if the stain remains. Test for colorfastness on a seam or hem before you bleach. On white cottons and linens, you can use a chlorine bleach.

BEST PENMEN TO WIN PRIZES IN FAIR WEEK

Penmanship exhibits, a display always of interest to many visitors, especially parents and pupils, at the South Mountain Fair which opens Tuesday, will again be open to students in county school systems.

Each exhibit will have a label with the district, school, name of pupil and grade, and will be on paper seven by eight and one-half inches, ruled the long way.

Work will be done in pencil by Grades One to Four and in pen with Grades Five and Six. Grade One will do work on manuscript penmanship while Grades Two to Six will do their work in cursive penmanship.

Separate prizes will be offered in each grade, up to the 10th, with premiums as follows: First, $1.50; second, $1.25; third, $1; fourth, 75 cents; fifth, 50 cents, and sixth to tenth, honorable mention ribbons.

REGULATE QUANTITY

The number of specimens to be submitted for each grade will be in proportion to one for each 10 pupils enrolled, at the closing of last summer's term. The teacher will decide the evaluation, by indicating in numbers, first, second, etc.

Grade One will write: "This sample shows how well I have learned to write"; Grade Two, sentence, "I am now learning to write"; Grade Three and Four, "A Patriotic Creed"; Grades Five and Six, "Ovals and Psalm of Life."

Judging will be based on size, alignment, spacing, slant, line quality and legibility.

Those on the penmanship committee include Chairman Wilson D. Wenk, Paul S. Burkholder, Mrs. Mary A. Steinberger, Mrs. Naomi C. Schwartz, Mrs. Sara M. Overcash, Mrs. Jeanetta H. Himes, Mrs. Jean S. Lobaugh, Mrs. Sarah L. Kilheffer and Miss Mary E. Elder.

RID LAWN OF MOSS

John C. Harper II, Penn State extension agronomist, warns that moss on lawns is usually due to low fertility, poor drainage, improper watering, too much shade, or a combination of these factors. Remove moss by hand raking or spraying with iopos sulfate. Apply at the rate of five ounces of copper sulfate in four gallons of water per 1,000 feet. After the moss is removed, correct the cause.

Don't work too hard making your guests feel at home; if they wanted to feel that way, they would have stayed there.

DIRECTORS OF FAIR HAVE SET UP RULES AND REGULATIONS

General rules and regulations have been set up by the directors of the South Mountain Fair which opens Tuesday to insure equality in exhibits and judging and protection for the exhibits.

All the exhibits, with a few exceptions, must be entered before 6 p.m. Tuesday evening. Horse show entries are not included.

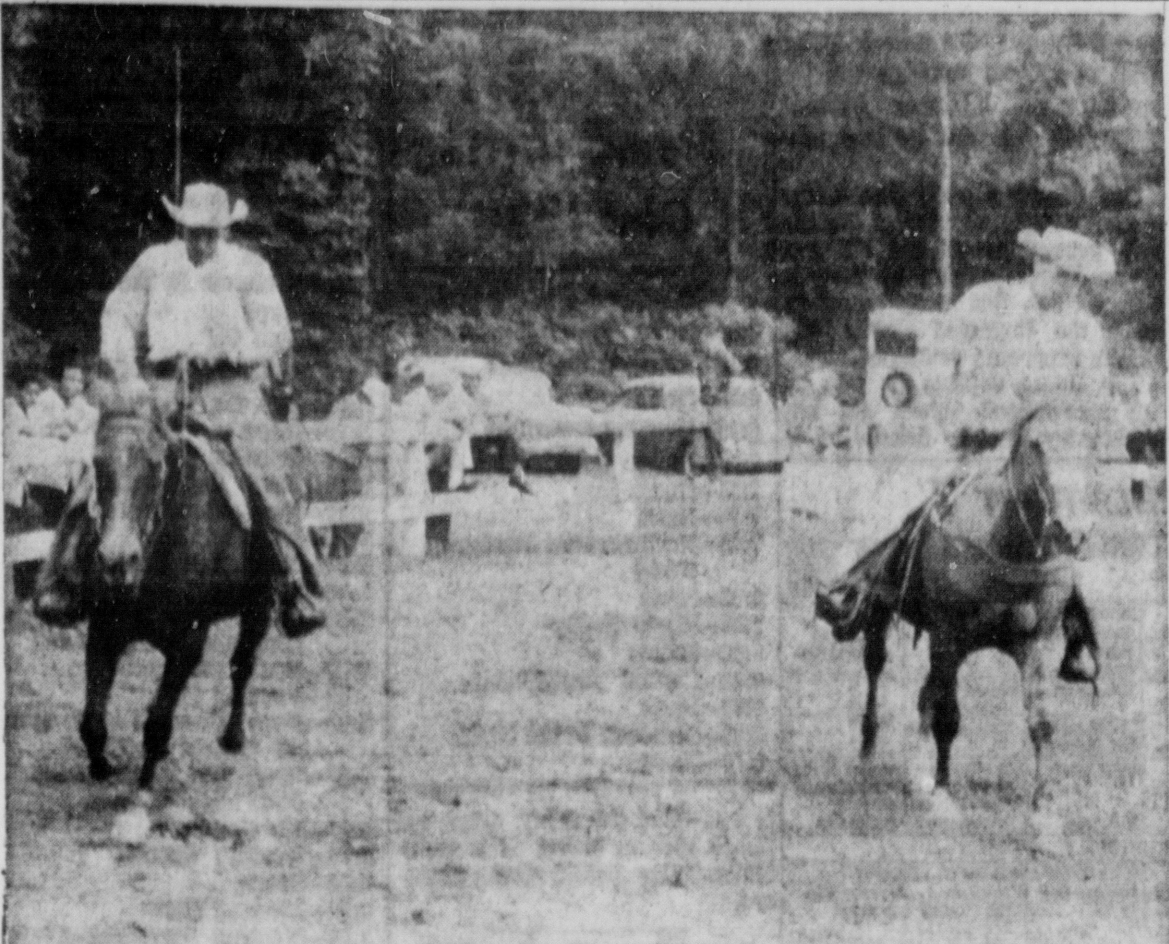

Fruit from storage may be entered before 9 a.m. Wednesday. While the exhibits are being displayed, the fair association will do everything possible to protect them but will not be legally responsible in case of fire, theft or damage in any other manner.

OTHER RULES LISTED

Exhibitors must keep their entries on display until 10 p.m. Saturday, except for the livestock, which may be removed at 6 p.m. that day. Livestock exhibitors will be furnished with a nontransferable weekly pass at the price of one admission and hay and straw will be furnished at the fair. Any grain for the animals must be furnished by the exhibitor.

Any one person who exhibits seven or more entries in one or more departments, exclusive of livestock, will be entitled to a season ticket at $1.

Those who exhibit dairy and beef breeding cattle must furnish accredited herd certificate while hogs must be treated for cholera

During the last several years the Western horse has gained great popularity in the county with its ability to "work" as well as provide a ride. The Western events add to the South Mountain Fair have been very popular. Here two of last year's contestants in Western classes are shown participating in the events.

prior to the fair.

NO ENTRY CHARGES

Other rules says that the exhibitor must care for and feed his own livestock and the association will not be responsible for any accident to livestock. Livestock entries should be in the office of the secretary prior to September 6.

In classes, where there is only one exhibit, the judges may award first prize if it qualifies but only second premium money

TROOPS TO BERLIN
Reinforcing Berlin May Be Good Idea:
But Only If There Be No Fighting

By JIM DAN HILL, Ph.D.
President, Wisconsin State College, Superior

REINFORCING America's Berlin garrison with an additional battle group is of diplomatic significance only. The nature of the units in the 75,000-man call to active duty is also significant.

The battle group to Berlin is merely a declaration of intentions and a morale builder to allies. From a strategic and tactical viewpoint, its military soundness can be seriously questioned. The battle group, as an organic, tactical unit, is of recent vintage. Because it is commanded by a full colonel, many mistake it for the regimental combat team of Korean war fame.

In truth, the battle group is little more than a healthy battalion. Its organic strength is 70 officers and 1,200 enlisted men. Its combat power is in five small infantry companies of 184 officers and men each. Headquarters, headquarters company and a support company (communications, supplies, etc.) explain the remaining strength.

JUST AS there are five shooting companies in a battle group, there are five infantry battle groups in the present day American Army division. Artillery and divisional spare parts round out the modern division's strength to about 13,000 officers and men.

This new, five-sided structure of Army combat formations caused one old sergeant to opine: "Whoever dreamed up this five times five deal had been on duty in the five-sided Pentagon too long."

Recent rumors are that the five-sided division is to be reorganized. The argument, however, for the five-by-five formations was their ability to put up a terrific fight when surrounded. If true, it could be a good idea to delay the reorganization of the Berlin troops until further notice. It's a cinch they will be surrounded, if and when comes a European Pearl Harbor.

will be paid.
A final note, all exhibits will be entered free.

good, heavily armored Russian divisions will fold around West Berlin's allied troops like cargo nets holding a clawing, spitting family of wild cats.

The remaining 16 Russian divisions now in Germany, plus six more now in Poland and Czechoslovakia, backed by three or more additional divisions from the East German army, would immediately be hurled against the allied ground forces now in West Germany.

In terms of divisions immediately available the odds would be two or three to one against the Allies. Actually, the picture is not that bad. At full strength, Russian divisions still have something less than half the fire power of the much larger and better equipped American, French, English and West German divisions.

In short, the West ought to be able to hold what it has insofar as the present West German frontier is concerned. That the Western allies have sufficient power with conventional, non-atomic weapons, to launch an offensive that would carry them more than a hundred miles to the relief of a besieged West Berlin is highly debatable. Some would say it is absurdly optimistic.

Sending another 1,500 men into Berlin at this time probably means there would be just another 1,500 men killed, captured and wounded, should Armageddon begin tomorrow. Reinforcing a sacrifice garrison is never good tactics.

THE OBVIOUS truth is that decisive opinion in the White House, the Department of Defense, the State Department and the Department of the Army holds that no hostilities are likely.

This is good news, if correct, any way you look at it. The truth of the above statement is further supported by a well reasoned and widely quoted address by Secretary Elvis Stahr, Department of the Army.

Even more convincing is the slowness with which the administration is implementing the extensive preparedness legislation and appropriations enacted by Congress.

Considerably less than all of the available units in the Air National Guard and Air Force ready reserve have been alerted. The expansion of the Regular Army, Navy, and Marine Corps is proceeding in a most deliberate manner. The Army units of the 75,000-man, October call to the colors are intelligence, ordnance, training, supply battalions and transportation companies. They are noncombatants: what the old combat sergeant called "the footwashing battalions."

All this portrays a collective conviction throughout official Washington that there is no immediate danger.

We can only pray and hope they're not making a bad guess. Many will recall similar thoughts in autumn, 1941, six weeks prior to Pearl Harbor, when FDR missed demobilizing the National Guard by one Congressional vote!

The Pan American Building, now being erected in New York City by United States Steel's American Bridge Division, will use about 45,000 tons of steel and will be the world's largest commercial office building.
